Jesse McKnight

With a monther's broken heart, I announce the passing of my only child, my son Jesse McKnight.

He leaves behind many family & friends. The youngest is his daughter, Jayda Lyn Rylee McKnight, only 8 years old.

In lieu of flowers, our family would gratefully accept donations to an education fund for Jayda, through Interior savings & credit Union, in Merritt, BC.

See you, my son, on the other side.
Always, my love. "Mama Bear" xox, a.k.a. Lana McKnight

Residential utility bills

Residential property owners can expect their utility bills for water, garbage and sewer by the end April.

City staff is currently proposing a change for the bylaws and awaiting Council's approval that will see the utilities divided into two equal payments.
The first bill will go out at the end April and the second half invoiced at the end of October.

For info & concerns, contact Deputy Finance Manager Ben Currie for further clarification, bcurrie@merriitt.ca

TNRD noise bylaw to deal with Angel's

Last month, the TNRD board voted to create bylaw that will restrict noisy dogs but not include industrial noise. It's all to address the concerns of residents in the neighbourhood of Angel's Animal Rescue shelter on Torgerson Road.

Since opening in 2008, there have been many noise complaints about constant barking at all hours of the day and night.

Earlier this year, neighbours renewed their complaints and the TNRD Board decided on a noise bylaw, from amidst several possible alternatives such as limiting the number of dogs, passing an animal control bylaw, encouraging the shelter to fix the problem, or facilitating a mediation between the shelter & residents. TNRD staff investigated and found that the noise not only impacts nearby neighbours, but bounces off the mountains of the narrow valley and gets projected for miles.

Meanwhile, Angel's Animal Rescue 's Judana Dawn-Caros is hoping to make a presentation to the TNRD Board before the bylaw is drafted, which won't be for several weeks.

Organic Biology Final Exam A professor stood before his class of 20 senior organic biology students, about to hand out the final exam. "I want to say that it's been a pleasure teaching you this semester. I know you've all worked extremely hard, and many of you are off to medical school after the summer. So that none of you gets your GPA messed up because you might have been celebrating a bit too much this week, anyone who would like to opt out of the final exam today will receive a 'B' for the course." There was much rejoicing amongst the class as students got up, passed by the professor to thank him, and signed out on his offer. As the last taker left the room, the professor looked out over the handful of remaining students and asked, "Anyone else? This is your last chance." One more student rose up and took the offer. The professor closed the door and took attendance of those students remaining. "I'm glad to see you believe in yourselves," he said. "Each of you gets an 'A.'"

'Shana: The Wolf's Music' @ NVIT

Close on the heels of its North American premiere — which caused a standing ovation for the actors & director in attendance, Shana will be screened Thurs., Fri & Sat., Apr 10, 11 & 12, 7:30pm each evening at the NVIT Theatre. Tickets are $10 for adults, $5 for students (under 18 or with a post secondary student card), available at the door

It is a coming-of-age story about a girl who triumphs over obstacles in her young life. Her new teacher discovers her extraordinary gifts as a violinist. When Shana goes on a spiritual journey, she be-friends a wild wolf who guides her and she reconnects with her ancestors, including her mother. Finally, she is able to make peace with her mother's death and, absorbed by nature and the spiritual world, Shana finds a unique way of musical expression, which will allow her to have a career as a violinist.

The entire cast is local and first time film performers. The 'real' actor cast includes: Sunshine O'Donovan, Delilah Dick, Marcel Shackelly, Alana 'AJ' Aspinall, Vonnet Hall & Marty Aspinall.
