Creative Company's 25th anniversary

Creative Company, Merritt's only artisan co-op, turns 25 this week! To help celebrate, they've set up a ballot box at the store, and when you make a purchase you can enter to win a $100 gift certificate to be drawn on April 16th, the actual date of the anniversary. There will also be cake and tea & coffee that day.

The shop sells unique items locally handmade by their members, providing a long-lived & constant 'bohemian factor' for Merritt. Over its lifespan, Creative Co. has worked out of 3 locations, moving to ever larger & more central premises, to its current 2074 Quilchena Quilchena St. location.

There are currently 10 members with work on display and for sale in the store: Almerina Rizzardo makes stained glass; Bev Bracklow creates practical fabric items for your kitchen and home; Brenda Homer is diversified with garlic products and 3-D cards; Carolyn Thompson hand-dyes and paints silk & velvet scarves; Debra Raymond quilts; Donna Caruso sews baby blankets and children's clothing; Peter Bracklow constructs potato bins and cat scratching posts; Sue Bakus makes jewellery using crystals and stones; Sylvia Boyd experiments with unique felted and summer hats; and Richard Tenisch is a western silversmith. Creative Co. also carries a line of pottery from Manfred and Christen Kriegl of Scotch Creek, and is an outlet for own Nicola Valley Honey.

Creative Co. is always seeking new artisans, and if you feel you would like to join their successful local arts & crafts group, please stop in and talk to one of the members. The shop is open Monday-Saturday 10am-5pm, year round. They would like to thank the community for supporting them throughout the past 25 years. By supporting local artisans, we support friends, neighbours and the wider community.

Caution urged with spring burning

Since April 1, 2014, Wildfire Management Branch crews have responded to 19 fires in the Kamloops Fire Centre. All of these fires were human-caused, with most of them attributable to escaped grass fires or careless debris pile burning.

Dead grasses can dry out quickly due to increased temperatures and wind. Anyone doing outdoor burning should pay attention to changing weather conditions and follow all burning regulations in order to reduce the number of preventable fires.

There is no burning within the boundaries of the City of Merritt. If you're outside city boundaries, check with the local fire department or TNRD to see if any open burning restrictions or bylaws are in effect. If you see flames or smoke, call 1 800 663-5555 or *5555 on your cellphone.
