Letter to the editor Kudos to...

...Councillor Kurt Christopherson for altering his motion at the March 25th council meeting so that the offensive tagline, Country with Attitude, was taken out of the running once and for all. Thank you to the City Council for approving it unanimously. A huge thank you to Coun. Christopherson for listening to the people you represent. Also to be commended is Dawn Chypyha, who circulated a petition against the tagline throughout Merritt and gathering over 1000 signatures. Rachelle Vogt

Sayso Expressions welcomes Spring

You may have noticed the activity spinning around the SaySo Expressions project. In addition to monthly SaySo's (a mic-night with a twist), the all-volunteer driven effort also brings professional touring musicians to The Club on Granite Ave.

Most recently, bluegrass fans enjoyed old favourites and original tunes with Backspin, acclaimed Vancouver bluegrass band... and the after-party jam with Nicola Valley musicians.

Afficionados of blues and swing can look forward to the return of the Queen of the Bouncing Boogie Blues on Sat. Apr. 26, Sabrina Weeks and the Swing Cat Bounce roll into town. They are "... a sizzling, scintillating, swinging, soulful band of seasoned pros who deliver a first-class show wherever they appear, original and fresh with a new twist to the blues and a dance beat that just won't quit. Their show is a guaranteed crowd pleaser and this gal can REALLY sing! Sabrina is a Canadian treasure in the making."

Then, they welcome Merritt's own Dung Beatles: Mo Ollek, Tim McLure, Phil Heal and Sean Schneider, who have recently played a sold-out show at the Railway Club in Vancouver in February and in March won Best Band at the Penticton Fest of Ale. We're lucky to be able to host them, because their bookings stretch into the summer months with out-of-town gigs. Saturday May 3, with The Shimmering Stars (damaged pop) and River City Magic, small-town music from small town folk — both locally-raised and grown. It will be high energy "outside the box", with occasional discordant harmonies with a dance-to beat delivered with a sense of humour by tight and accomplished musicians.

Tickets for all of SaySo Events are available at Country Bug Books or Earth-walker Spiritual Shop.

Rotary crab dinner Rotary's second annual Crab Fest is May 10, 6pm at the Civic Centre. There will be a dinner, dance, games, 50/50 draws, auctions with "Wild Bill Henke", music by Boogie Nights Entertainment. Proceeds to Merritt Movie Theatre & Food Bank's Children's Nutrition Program. Tickets $50 each from Jacqueline 378-2546, Elizabeth 378-4288, or Brambles Bakery.

Mothers' Day Tea at Baillie House May 10, 2 seatings: 11:30am & 1:30pm, reservations required by May 8, 6 pm. Tickets still only $12.50 each. Come and enjoy a high tea in a lovely Victorian setting FMI/ to reserve call 378-0349.

Tax Humor

What's the difference between a tax collector and a taxidermist? The taxidermist leaves the hide!

•What do you get when you cross a firecracker and a duck? A firequacker.
Wanna hear a joke about unemployed people? Nevermind, they don't work.

•What time do you go to the dentist? 2:30

•Why do zombies always kill at comedy clubs? Because their jokes are told post-humorously!

A man once thought he'd discovered a new primary color, but it proved to be merely a pigment of his imagination.

Creative Co. turns 25!

Stop by Creative Company, 2074 Quilchena Ave. today to help celebrate! When you make a purchase you can enter to win a $100 gift certificate. There will also be cake and tea & coffee. The shop is open Monday-Saturday 10am-5pm, year round.
