Michelle Morrison

It is with much sorrow I, Elizabeth Faber, announce the passing of my beautiful daughter, Michelle Dawn Morrison, September 1, 2014.

She was a loving mother to her only child Jordan Morrison, a doting aunt to her brother Dean's three children, Paz, Ani, and Edie Morrison-Rainville, and she will be greatly missed by many family members and friends.

Many thanks to the Merritt community for all your support. A memorial service will be held September 13, 2014 at the Merritt Funeral Chapel, 2113 Granite Ave.

Congrats, Ty

Last evening, Mayor Susan Roline presented an award to Ty Pozzobon on behalf of City Council, for his invitational bullriding event — the promotion it gives & the visitors it draws to Merritt.

Recycling rezoning

Businesses in the Railyard Mall and other concerned citizens made their views known at last evening's public hearing to amend the mall's zoning to include recycling. They brought up congestion & chaos in the parking lot (and thus safety issues); cleanliness and sanitary issues; and the potential for the mall to turn into an eyesore. They were all pretty much in agreement that the facility in that location would be a detriment to the downtown core, and that recycling should stay in an industrial area, not in one of Merritt's premier retail areas.

Paul Mayer, the agent from Colliers the property managers, represented the owner of the Railyard Mall. The owner has applied for the zoning amendment in anticipation that Encorp Pacific wants to upgrade its Merritt recycling facility to a 5-star operation — as is the trend in the Lower Mainland.

Paul said they've been working with a different operator who is interested in the Encorp contract in Merritt, to set in place the possibility of opening a new style of recycling that is more appealing to the younger generation, based on convenience.

Being skeptical when they were first approached, the owner & property manager investigated similar operations run by the same prospective tenant, and Paul said based on the facilities they saw, they became completely satisfied that the operator could run a clean, convenient service. With the amendment, they were hoping it would bring more people and new tenants to their mall.

But City Council defeated the application unanimously, saying they'd entertain it again in the event that the project comes through, but not on simply a possibility. Harry Kroeker said he didn't want to make another rezoning mistake like the one they'd made over the heavy industrial.

If They Had a Doting Mother, part 2

NAPOLEON'S MOTHER: "All right, if you aren't hiding your report card inside your jacket, take your hand out of there and show me."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S MOTHER: "Again with the stovepipe hat? Can't you just wear a baseball cap like the other kids?"

MARY'S MOTHER: "I'm not upset that your lamb followed you to school, but I would like to know how he got a better grade than you."

ALBERT EINSTEIN'S MOTHER: "But it's your senior picture. Can't you do something about your hair? Styling gel, mousse, something...?"

Murray Church

How many times have you driven by Murray Church, the little white church beside the gift shop in Upper Nicola, and wondered if it is ever used, or wanted to see the interior? Murray Church provided worship space for people in the area until the 1950s.
