Directions

1) To pit the plums, slice them almost in half, open, and remove pit. Place about 1/3 tsp of sugar in the hollow of each plum; close the plum, and place in a bowl. Set aside. 2) Place potatoes in a large pot with enough water to cover. Bring to a boil, and cook until tender. Drain. When cool enough to handle, mash potatoes with a fork or potato masher. You will need 1 cup of mashed potatoes. Set aside, and keep warm. 3) To make the dough, sift the flour, sugar, baking powder & salt together into a pile on a breadboard. Make a well in the center; add 1 cup mashed potatoes, egg yolks & shortening into the well, and work in until the dough is pliable and smooth. 4) When dough is thoroughly kneaded, roll it out onto a floured board to a thickness of about 1/4". Cut into roughly 4" rounds with a biscuit cutter. Holding one piece of dough in your hand, place a whole pitted plum in the center. Place another piece of dough on top, and press to seal the edges of the dough together. Make sure there are no leaks, or the plum will come out during cooking. 5) To cook, bring a deep pot of salted water to boil. Place dumplings in water, and boil gently for about 10 mins. 6) Meanwhile, to make the sauce, melt butter in a large frying pan over medium heat. Stir in brown sugar. (If you like, stir in some of the juice that collects in the bowl of pitted plums.) Stir in a small amount of bread crumbs to slightly thicken the sauce. 7) When dumplings are done, remove them from boiling water, and place them in the frying pan, and turn to coat the dumplings. Serve hot with extra sauce poured over them.

The City That Never Sleeps Our family was dazzled by the sights and the bustling crowds during a visit to Manhattan. "This is the city that never sleeps," I told my eleven-year-old daughter. "That's probably because there's a Starbucks on every corner," she observed.

Good news/Bad news Wife: Honey I have good news and bad news about the car. Husband: Give me the good news first. Wife: The airbags work!

Rabies My neighbor was bitten by a stray, rabid dog. I went to see how he was and found him writing frantically on a piece of paper. I told him rabies could be treated, and he didn't have to worry about a will. He said, "Will? What will? I'm making a list of the people I want to bite."
