Arrest, finally, in Monica Jack murder

After 36 years, RCMP have arrested a man for the murder of then 12-year old Monica Jack, as well as the murder of Kathryn-Mary Herbert, 11, who disappeared in Abbotsford in 1975.

Police say that three decades of investigation by multiple police forces combined to pinpoint the same suspect, and they took Ontario resident Garry Handlen into custody without incident in Surrey on Friday. They say Handlen was brought into the investigation as a suspect or person of interest early on, but it has taken this long for them to gather the evidence needed in order to satisfy the courts to bring Handlen forward on charges. He'll appear in court again on December 8.

Police wouldn't comment on any existence of DNA evidence, but said "all advances in forensic technology have been brought to bear." In 2007, investigators added Monica's name to Project E-PANA, which had been probing 18 unsolved homicides or missing-women cases along BC highways, including the "Highway of Tears". New investigators with fresh eyes reviewed 500 previously-conducted police tasks and initiated 241 more, including a series of re-interviews and new forensic analysis.

Monica's mother, Madeline Lanaro, spoke at Monday's press conference, saying the announcement was a mixed blessing. She asked that the family be permitted privacy during this difficult time, and said a gathering of friends and family will take place in the spring to honour and remember Monica.

Mayor & council

The swearing in & inaugural meeting of Merritt's new mayor and city council was held Monday evening, with a near-capacity crowd in council chambers.

Outgoing mayor Susan Roline was presented with a musical note plaque, in recognition for her service to the community. Outgoing councillors Clara Norgaard & Harry Kroeker will also receive the recognition, though they were not in attendance.

Hands of Hope collects 5088lbs of food

Royal Lepage would like to thank everyone who participated in their Hand of Hope food drive on Sunday.

The more than 100 volunteers collected over 5000 lbs of food for the local Food Bank, surpassing last year's total!

Royal Lepage owner Claudette St-Cyr said: "We'd like to thank everyone for their generosity. And we're looking forward to doing it again next year."

Peak power demand

BC Hydro reports that electricity demand peaked at 9,346 megawatts on Sunday evening between 5 & 6pm — 1,550 megawatts higher than the peak demand on the Sunday the week before.

Then Monday, province-wide electricity demand increase to 9,581 megawatts between 5 & 6pm — nearly 1,000 megawatts higher than last Monday's peak demand of 8,612 megawatts. But it wasn't enough to top the record set in Nov. 2006 of 10,113 megawatts.

And demand is expected to remain higher than normal until temperatures increase later this week.

To offset increasing heat requirements, BC Hydro recommends washing clothes in cold water, turning off the "heat dry" function on the dishwasher, and using a programmable thermostat to heat the house only when at home.

Little Brother A mother asked her small son what he would like for his birthday. "I'd like a little brother," the boy said. "Oh my, that's such a big wish," said the mother. "Why do you want a little brother?" "Well," said the boy, "there's only so much I can blame on the dog."

Are You Ready? A man pacing back and forth glanced at his watch and yelled upstairs to his wife, "Honey, are you ready yet?" Shouting back, the woman replies, "For crying out loud, I've been telling you for the last half hour... I'll be ready in a minute!"
