Biowaste public meeting

The Nicola Watershed Community Round Table has organized a meeting to learn about biosolids — TODAY at the Civic Centre, 9:30am-3:30pm, open to all residents of the Nicola watershed. There will be Q&A sessions for the public after each speaker.

Community Business Walk 2015

Community Futures Nicola Valley, the Chamber & the City together will canvass businesses to find out their views on local economic conditions and how to improve them. Volunteers will fan out around the community on Thurs. Jan 29, after a kick-off event starting at 9am at City Hall. The Merritt Business Walk 2015 is a survey that should take less than 5 minutes.

Sunday, Feb 1st., the Legion will open at 2pm for a Super Bowl party. No cover charge, just bring a plate of appetizers. Members & guests welcome, members will sign in anyone wishing to attend.

Watoto Children's Choir

The words they use stink!

As we head into the forum on Sludge-Waste (I am consciously not using the industry's re-branded marketing term of "Biosolids") it is worth examining the terms and phrases employed by the companies and individuals who are pushing this insidious product into our beautiful valley.

Because the disposal of the end-product of sewage treatment is such a big problem, there is a vast amount of money available for those who are willing to endorse these new and untested "solutions" like trucking it away into other people's backyards. We must be conscious of the words they use to push their product.

Firstly, they tell us it is "compost." Well as a gardener for most of my life I can assure you this product is not compost. Because something is subjected to a process similar to composting does not make the substance into compost. Compost uses organic components, manures and plants for the most part. It does not include what is in this sludge-waste: pathogens, carcinogens, heavy metals, industrial chemicals, medical waste, pesticides, cleaners etc. Allowing this lovely cocktail to be "composted" or "treated" or "cured" does not eliminate anywhere near all the toxins present in this residual mass. To call this "compost" is disingenuous and deceitful. Do not let them use this word.

Secondly, they tell us this product and process is "safe." Well, it isn't. As Harvard Professor Caroline Snyder has clearly demonstrated, "there is no scientific evidence that land application is safe or sustainable." This is why several European countries have outright bans on land applications. This is why "serious adverse health effects (including deaths) have been reported by hundreds of rural neighbours living and working adjacent to sludged sites." This is why "NONE of the nation's major food processing companies accept produce from growers that use sludge on their fields." It is not "safe." Do not let them use this word.

Thirdly, they tell us it is "fertilizer." I use a lot of manure in my gardening and composting: sheep, horse, cow and chicken. I have never used human waste. This is a personal choice. Humans have been using this "night soil" for hundreds if not thousands of years. It can be a natural and useful composted fertilizer. That said, what these trucks are bringing into our valley is not simply "night soil." It is a goulash of toxins mixed up with some human feces and whatever else goes down the cities' sewer systems. Caroline Snyder's work has shown how the application of sludge-waste will eventually bring crop production dramatically down. This comes as no surprise to any of us who have seen what industrial chemicals can do to plants. To call this product "fertilizer" is to distort the very meaning of the word. Do not let them use this word.

What we are fighting for are three very simple words: earth, water and air. I am not willing to watch these being destroyed in front of me, nor am I willing to see the language I love used as a tool in this deception. —Don Vincent, Sunshine Valley resident

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

Aries March 21 - April 19 Even in situations that are designed to remind us of life's sorrows, we are at liberty to remain calm, still and peaceful. You are allowed to enjoy yourself now.	Taurus April 20 - May 20 The secret of success involves appreciating what you've got. Develop love & appreciation, and others will direct love & appreciation towards you.	Gemini May 21 - June 20 Explanations can raise as many issues as they resolve. If something seems to be too easily believable, this week it probably isn't quite so simple.	Cancer June 21 - July 22 A sense of belonging & the need to feel safe are as important as the need to eat or sleep. A great sense of fulfillment awaits you this week.
Leo July 23 - Aug 22 We talk so much, we hold endless meetings, encounters & conversations. To make progress in a sensitive situation, do less talking & more attentive listening.	Virgo Aug 23 - Sept 22 People hate to say 'I don't know', instead they will tell you their assumption implying truth. Confidence & accuracy aren't automatically the same.	Libra Sept 23 - Oct 22 You see that a 'prized possession' is worth less now, and has been preventing more useful things from entering your life. Let go of it & see what takes its place.	Scorpio Oct. 23 - Nov 21 We all have to commit to a course of action, even though we have our doubts about it. This week's moral dilemma can yet be resolved.
Sagittarius Nov 22 - Dec 21 You can't ignore your emotional reaction, but you can refuse to let it colour your response. If you negotiate, you will find that another person is similarly flexible.	Capricorn Dec 22 - Jan 19 You can't be entirely sure that your inner compass is functioning accurately. But trust it, for now, and more clarity will come later this week.	Aquarius Jan 20 - Feb 18 By treating a delicate issue with deference you will avoid trouble. That means having humility to concede a possible error, even if it briefly hurts your pride.	Pisces Feb 19 - Mar 20 Use your imagination & creativity. You may not have what you want but you have the power to create it. Once you find inspiration there will be no stopping you.
