Go, Dakota!

Dakota O'Donovan left yesterday for the Canada Winter Games being held in Prince George. He will compete in Air Pistol, one of the 4-person BC pistol team.

The 2015 Canada Winter Games run February 13 to March 1. Prince George and the Lheidli T'enneh host First Nation will welcome 2400 athletes, 1000 coaches and officials, up to 4500 volunteers, hundreds of media and thousands of visitors.

This will be the largest multi-sport and cultural event to ever be held in Prince George and northern British Columbia, and is expected to generate an economic impact of over $90 million.

The young participating athletes are the next generation of Canadian national, international and Olympic champions.

Official visitors' guide sorted out

The 'wrong' of farming out production of the City of Merritt's official visitors' guide has been righted, this week. The guide being produced by the Merritt Herald will be the one that is officially sanctioned, that's after City Council reviewed the decision made by former economic development manager Jerry Sucharyna, who had awarded the contract to a Kelowna advertising firm.

Shelter filling local need

Nicola Valley Shelter and Support Society coordinator Kelly Reid reported that guest numbers at the Extreme Weather Shelter are still up over previous years. This past month, Jan 2015, saw 238 overnight guests (128 male & 10 female). That's compared to 148 in Jan 2014 and 132 in Jan 2013.

In terms of individuals, the 2014-15 has seen a total of 56 males & 6 females, for a total of 62, to date.

But of interest to organizers is that last month, 100 guests accessed the shelter for reasons other than overnight stays — such as food, clothing and social. And 3 people were able to be housed last month.

The shelter will remain open nightly 5pm to 8am until the end of March.

Moving woes

A motor vehicle accident 7 km north of Merritt just before 2pm on Wednesday closed one southbound lane while crews respond to what appears to be toys and clothing covering the highway.

A tractor trailer hauling the household items was involved in a crash with another truck, spreading boxes and bags of goods across the highway.

Biology Revisited

- When you breathe, you inspire. When you do not breathe, you expire.
- Mushrooms always grow in damp places and so they look like umbrellas.
- Theasaurus is an ancient reptile with an excellent vocabulary.
- It has recently been discovered that research causes cancer in rats.
- Before giving a blood transfusion, find out if the blood is affirmative or negative.
- Genetics explain why you look like your father and if you don't, why you should.
- Dew is formed on leaves when the sun shines down on them and makes them perspire.
- Sterility is hereditary: If your grandfather didn't have children and your father didn't have children, you won't have children too.
