Public input sought for Merritt's AAC

The provincial government is looking for feedback on their discussion paper regarding the allowable annual cut for the Merrit Timber Supply area. Merritt, Princeton, Tulameen, Brookmere, Missezula Lake, Douglas Lake, Lower Nicola, Osprey Lake and Allison Lake are all included in the region and account for 1.13 million hectares, with approximately 600,000 hectares available for timber harvesting.

The chief forester will review feedback made by the public which will help determine how much timber harvesting can occur. The independent professional review also includes consultations with the Okanagan and Nlka'pamux Nations.

The review is a requirement under the Forest Act, which requires the chief forester to determine the maximum amount of wood that can be cut in a supply area at least every 10 years. However, consultations usually begin earlier.

To review the paper, visit for.gov.bc.ca and search 'Merritt AAC'. Comments accepted until September 23, 2015.

Parks, Recreation & Culture master plan

As part of the 2015 budgetary process, City council approved the development of a Parks, recreation and Culture Master Plan. It will seek significant input and feedback from the community, user groups, City Council and staff. Once finished, it will become the guiding document for future development and delivery of services for the next 10 years.

Ten submissions were received in response to the Request for Proposals, and eventually Eri Lees & Assoc. were deemed best choice by the selection committee. The amount proposed by the proponent was $54,908, perfectly under the City's budget of $55,000 (evidently considered on the low end of the cost scale for the type of plan in similar size communities.)

Quote of the week

"Shit man, we'd all been out there for 12 hours or so and suddenly we're hauled out, lined up in a parking lot, left standing for an hour, and then expected to sing O Canada so Harper can get a picture?" said front-line firefighter Ted McKinley, to Kelowna radio station AM 1150. "That's complete bullshit. Harper just wanted a picture as quickly as he could get one... he still smelled like garlic from whatever he had for lunch."

[Firefighters at the Kelowna wildfire refused to sing the national anthem for Stephen Harper, after the prime minister pulled them away from the fire in order to pose for a pre-election photograph. Harper began to wildly wave his hands to spur them into a chorus of O Canada. The group stood silently as Harper sang, and refused to accept the Canada's Better With Harper t-shirts being handed out by Harper's election organizers.]

Railway lands open house A best-use study was commissioned late last year and identifies 3 possible options for how nearly 3 acres, the former CP Rail land that parallels Quilchena Ave. east of Main St. could be used. The City will receive individual coorespondence from adjacent properties before Oct. 1. Then there will be an open house on Oct. 15, 4-7pm. You can look up the study & options at www.merritt.ca

Q. Why did the golfer bring an extra pair of pants when he went golfing? A. In case he got a "hole in one".

Wake Up Call One night at an economy motel, I ordered a 6 a.m. wake-up call. The next morning, I awoke before 6, but the phone did not ring until 6:30. "Good morning," a young man said sheepishly. "This is your wake-up call." Annoyed, I let the hotel worker have it. "You were supposed to call me at 6!," I complained. "What if I had a million-dollar deal to close this morning, and your oversight made me miss out on it?" "Well, sir," the desk clerk quickly replied, "if you had a million-dollar deal to close, you wouldn't be staying in this motel!"

Frog Sounds One day a boy asked his grandpa "grandpa make a frog sound" The grandfather asked why? The boy said, "Grandma says when you croak we are going to Hawaii"
