MERRITT MORNING MARKET

WEEKEND EDITION – AUGUST 28, 2015 #2761

News, opinion, community events & classifieds since 1996! Box 2199 Merritt, BC V1K 1B8
T (250)378-5717 F (250)378-2025 market@uniserve.com merrittmorningmarket.wordpress.com

Quote of the week

Our colourful mayor

You might have caught Neil Menard's — our own down-to-earth & grandfatherly mayor — opinion piece published in The Province newspaper on Wednesday? If not, you can find it on their website: "Interior folks are green and support pipelines". (And you can bet your booty Kinder Morgan has the link on their website, too!)

While he nearly comes off as the spokes-grampa for the TransMountain pipeline, if you read it through you find a balanced & rational opinion. Neil deftly dishes out realism & optimism, while nodding to concerns over the environment, employment & economics. He also addresses the perceived urban-rural divide on environmental issues.

"Kinder Morgan estimates that there will be $1.8 billion in construction spending in the Interior. That's a huge chunk of all the capital spending in the region. Thousands of people, locals & non-locals, will be working in the region, and they'll be spending 10s of millions of dollars at hotels, motels & restaurants, grocery stores and gas stations. The benefits won't end when construction is done. Trans Mountain's municipal taxes will double and the City of Merritt will collect $500,000 a year in property taxes. The regional district will collect more than $13 million a year — money that will stay in our communities to support local services without coming out of your pocket or mine."

—Merritt Mayor Neil Menard

Of course not everyone will agree, but some might see a different perspective if they make it to the end of Neil's letter. He has painted a pleasing shade of grey in that black-&-white pipeline issue — that is about to be back in the news with the upcoming Nat'l Energy Board regulatory review presentations. And inevitable protests.

[Ed: But the way things are going in the oil industry, it might just become a moot point!]

Another fire @ Tolko

Merritt Fire Rescue put out another hog fuel pile fire at Tolko yesterday afternoon. Tolko has had at least larger 3 spontaneous combustion fires this month, and more smaller ones according to residents living nearby.

Tolko says it has now increased hog fuel pile monitoring.
