Stolen boat recovered

Tuesday morning, Merritt RCMP were alerted to an erratic driver west-bound on the Connector near Brenda Mine. When they attempted to conduct a stop, the 2012 Chev Silverado, pulling a boat, fled from police. They were able to deploy a spike belt & partially disable the vehicle, which was later found abandoned in town. Soon after, they located the driver on foot and he fled again, but after a short foot chase he was arrested. Police found that both the truck & boat had been stolen. The 35-year old man faces charges of possession of stolen property over $5000, flight from police, dangerous operation of a motor vehicle and impaired driving. He also has several outstanding warrants from BC & AB.

Pro Rodeo pay-out

Last weekend's pro rodeo payed out for 2 Nicola Valley contestants: Mike Garthwaite in steer wrestling ($1492 - the biggest prize of the weekend), and Fallon Fosbery in ladies barrel racing ($385).

[Ty Pozzobon, who had been scheduled to ride on Sunday, wasn't able to compete after a bull broke his leg in Elensburg, Wa. the night before he was to return to the Nicola Valley. He remains in a hospital in Seattle, and will have to hobble down the aisle at his wedding in Texas early next month.]

Show Fleas "Please keep your dog beside you, sir," a woman said crossly to the man sitting opposite to her on the bench at the park. "I can feel a flea in my shoe." "Midnight, come here," replied the man. "This woman has fleas."

It's a Miracle! A bent-over old lady hobbled into a doctor's office. Within minutes, she came out again but miraculously, she was standing up as straight as could be. A man in the waiting room who had been watching her said in amazement; "My goodness, what did the doctor do to you?" The old lady replied, "He gave me a longer cane!"
