Protesters from the Nicola
Valley at the Vancouver
Convention Centre on Wednesday, to support
resolution B-59

Resolution B-59 passes at UBCM

The joint TNRD & City of Merritt resolution B-59 passed 'in a block' of other resolutions with no opposition.

From here, the Union of BC Municipalities staff will bring it to the provincial government, and government will address issues put forth by UBCM in 2016.

"The UBCM executive has the full support of the UBCM body and mandate to take this to the provincial government to move to change legislation, said TNRD Director Randy Murray.

Georgia Clement, of Friends of the Nicola Valley, said: "This was a great day, super turnout and great media coverage. People were disgusted to learn of this issue, hundreds took the brochures and wanted to know more. Change will happen, more and more people will demand it, the Sludge Industry GRAVY TRAIN is coming to a grinding halt."

[Ed.: Meanwhile news that talks are underway to construct pyrolysis plant in the Nicola Valley is premature. A presentation was made last month about pyrolysis as an alternative to composting & spreading biosolids sludge on land. But we wouldn't want to make the same mistake again, vis-a-vis non-consultation, would we?]

Food Bank needs volunteers

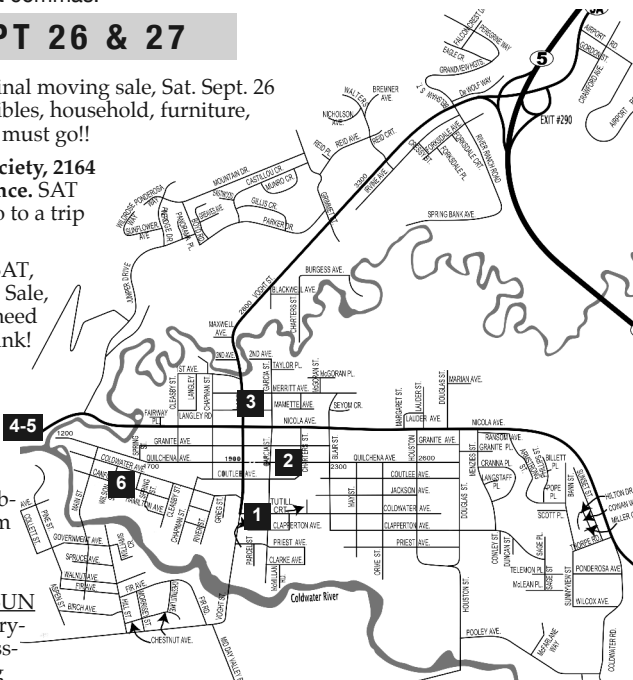

Food Bank manager Marlene Fenton says that they are looking for volunteers. "I would like to find several people who could commit to 4 hours, once a week. We need people who can work with clients up front as well as do prep work in the back," she explained. Anyone interested can call Marlene, 378-2282.

Shut up & Trouble Shut Up and Trouble were walking down a path. Trouble got lost. So, Shut Up went to the police officer. The police officer asked, "What's your name?" He answered, "Shut Up." He asked again "What's your name?" "Shut Up." The police officer asked, "Are you looking for trouble?!" "Yeah, I lost him down a path about two miles ago."

Stop Sign Driving my car one afternoon, I rolled through a stop sign. I was pulled over by a police officer who recognized me as his former English teacher. "Mrs. Brown," he said, "those stop signs are periods, not commas."

Blessing of the Animals service

Sunday, Oct. 4, 10am at St. Michael's Anglican Church, 1990 Chapman. All pets are welcome and cameras too. Service commemorates St. Frances of Assisi, known as the patron saint of animals and the environment. Oct 4 is his feast day. Frances was also known for his love of Holy Communion and was the creator of the Christmas creche better known as the Nativity Scene. Frances was a great poet and was credited with the poem, (now also a hymns) Lord, Make Me an Instrument of your Peace.
