Wild Wind Onion at Lions Park

Wednesday afternoon, Heinz Lange's newly refurbished 'Wild Wind Onion' was installed in its new location in Lions Park near the Merritt Desert Inn.

The wind onion has been on the lawn of Heinz & Lydia's home on Greaves Ave., since it was built as a prototype for Heinz's lake aerator invention in 1974.

The Nicola Valley Museum has been working for the past year with the City to find an appropriate public location to feature the wind-powered generator. They are still working on the lighting and signage.

Heinz was an avid inventor and a fierce conservationist, he was a bit eccentric in his ways and passion for art and life.
He was studying engineering and art before the Second World War in Prussia, which was later annexed by Germany.
When Hitler rose to power he was conscripted into service and became a Luftwaffe test pilot (he was one of the few that flew the first jet planes produced by the Germans at the very end of the war).
Eventually he became part of a squadron that flew over the Russian front. In postwar Germany he worked for one of General Eisenhower's fledgling counter intelligence agencies' under Radio Stuttgart observing the Russians. In Merritt, he taught industrial arts at the high school for many years until his health gave out.

There's more info about the wind onion and Heinz on the museum website

Quote of the day

"It is an incredible day! Jody Wilson-Raybould is an excellent choice as Attorney-General and Minister of Justice. We are happy Dr. Carolyn Bennett is Minister of the Indigenous and Northern Affairs. Their respective expertise and experiences will serve us all well.

The UBCIC is looking forward to working with the Government of Canada on revising legislation, policies and litigation strategy to reflect current case-law such as the landmark Tsilhqot'in decision as well as be the leader on the international stage by implementing a national plan to implement the UN Declaration of Indigenous Peoples.
Today's federal Cabinet appointments represent tremendous potential and opportunities for the Indigenous Peoples of Canada." — Grand Chief Stewart Phillip, President of the Union of BC Indian Chiefs, on the new Liberal federal govt cabinet

Weight Lifting? The father was doubtful of his son's sudden interest to become Charles Atlas. Nevertheless he went with the teenager to the weight-lifting department.
"Please, Dad," begged the boy, "I promise I'll use them every day...." "I'm not so sure, Danny. You may lose interest in the equipment," his father was quick to point out. "Ahhhh please, Dad?" "Besides, it's quite an expense," the father added. "I promise, Dad, I'll use them...." Danny finally won, and his Dad paid for the equipment.
As the father was leaving the department, he heard his son call out..."What! You mean I have to carry this stuff to the car?"

An Antartian ordered a pizza and the clerk asked if he should cut it in six or twelve pieces.
The Antartian replies, "Six, please. I could never eat twelve pieces."
