‘Arctic outbreak’
Special weather statement in effect for Nicola

Environment Canada is warning that the first Arctic outbreak of the season will bring cold air, snow and difficult winter driving conditions to the Southern Interior of BC, beginning today.

An intensifying upper trough of low pressure over the Pacific will develop into a deep upper low near the Washington coastline by Tuesday morning. As the Pacific system approaches, snow will spread over the Southern Interior Monday.

At the same time, an Arctic high pressure system in Northern BC will intensify and push Arctic air southward. By early Tuesday morning, the Arctic front will be traversing the Southern Interior. As the coldest air of the season so far arrives, temperatures will fall, windchills will worsen, and locally there will be poor visibility because of the snow — 5-15cm possible by late Monday.

The storm will end by Tuesday evening and the Southern Interior will settle into a 4-6 day period of chilly but otherwise weather-less winter days. The public is advised to monitor future forecasts and warnings as they may be required or extended: www.weather.gc.ca

ILM over budget & late, but complete

BC Hydro has finished building the new 247-km, 500-kv Interior to Lower Mainland transmission line. It is a major upgrade to BC Hydro's bulk transmission system, the first in more than 30 years.

The new line crosses mountains, grasslands, major rivers and highways, from the Nicola substation to Coquitlam. BC Hydro awarded the construction contract in 2011 to Flatiron Graham Joint Venture and construction began in the spring of 2012. The initial in-service date was October 2014, however the contractor faced scheduling pressures and, based on feedback, BC Hydro pushed the in-service date to late 2015. The final cost of the line is expected to be $743 million — about $18 million higher than BC Hydro's original budget of $725 million.

Mother rabbit to her small bunny: "A magician pulled you out of a hat. Now stop asking questions."
Vet Bills While waiting at the veterinarian's office, I overheard two women chatting about their dogs. "What's your dog's name?" asked the first woman. "Well, we used to call her Pork Chop," answered the second lady. "But after the vet bills we've had for her, we now call her Filet Mignon."

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

Aries

March 21 - April 19

What if this doesn't work? What if that goes wrong? Just trust that you are in no great danger and that the cosmos naturally intends to do all it can to assist you.

Taurus

April 20 - May 20

This week, confrontation will polarise a difference of opinion as assuredly as comedy. Look for some subtle, gentle way to slowly reassure.

Gemini

May 21 - June 20

This week, straight-talking may be the result of twisted thinking. But you are right to feel sure of yourself. Be firm but be fair too.

Cancer

June 21 - July 22

you have been through trying times. And people seem to have been judging you lately. How else to explain the current lack of choice in your life? That this is about to change.

Leo

July 23 - Aug 22

You stand poised to achieve a victory to which hidden undesirable implications are attached. You might do better to win second prize this week.

Virgo

Aug 23 - Sept 22

You find a way to turn around what you don't want to do. Feats of invention become possible. You can see how to turn what once looked like a problem, into an opportunity.

Libra

Sept 23 - Oct 22

You discover how lucky you are to be who you are and you also become aware of how easy it is to turn a tide of fortune so that it now starts working in your favour.

Scorpio

Oct. 23 - Nov 21

you wrestle with confusing concepts and attempt to answer complicated questions. Don't try to oversimplify the process. You can take a big step towards a brighter future.

Sagittarius

Nov 22 - Dec 21

No need to take the easy way out, this week. You'll face a challenge but it is one you can easily rise to if you are determined.

Capricorn

Dec 22 - Jan 19

Only slowly do we wake up to see how our dreams can trick us. This week you get a moment of recognition, followed by the chance to rectify an error. All will be well.

Aquarius

Jan 20 - Feb 18

A chance, of course, means nothing unless you take it. Take a good look at a situation, you may see something splendid, hidden in the midst of it all.

Pisces

Feb 19 - Mar 20

'Least said, soonest mended.' This week, where conversations can be postponed and distractions can be created, that's probably best for now.
