Police report

Since January 1st, Merritt RCMP have responded to 42 calls for service. 8 of these calls were for traffic driving offences, 6 motor vehicle incidents on the highway (not including CITS Central Interior traffic stats), 5 assaults which include domestic, consensual assaults and verbal disputes. (Two of the domestic calls resulted in charges being laid against the aggressor.)

Car thief apprehended in Merritt

On January 2, a report was made to the Kelowna RCMP of a theft of motor vehicle. The owner had left his vehicle running in a parking lot to warm up and it was reported stolen at 9pm.

Just before 2am on January 3rd, Merritt RCMP observed a vehicle making an illegal u-turn on Nicola Ave. The vehicle was pulled over at Norgaard's and then proceeded to flee from police. The plate run on the vehicle came back to the stolen vehicle from Kelowna.

The vehicle was followed to Lower Nicola, where it made a turn and attempted to return to Merritt. A spike belt was successfully deployed by Merritt RCMP at Shulus, where the vehicle was subsequently stopped and driver arrested without incident.

20-year old Joshua Tyler Nixon of Kelowna was charged with possession of stolen property 355 CCC and flight from police officer 249.1(1) CCC and appeared in Kamloops court January on Monday.

People are reminded to not leave their vehicles running unattended during the cold weather. If it is necessary, you should have a way of locking the vehicle or disengaging the engine to prevent theft.

Outdoor rink a bust for this winter

The myriad troubles that have plagued the new lacrosse box/outdoor rink have continued into the skating season. Though a schedule was posted on the City's website last month for public skating, there apparently were glitches in staff training to flood & maintain the rink, and it never did open. Maybe next year...

Help for those with print disabilities

The TNRD Library System is now offering access to the National Network for Equitable Library Service (NNELS) database for people with print disabilities.

NNELS allows users to download an unlimited number of free audiobooks in various formats. Approximately 10% of Canadians cannot read standard books because of a print disability. Print disabilities include low vision and blindness; mobility problems, such as MS and Parkinson's; dyslexia; and brain injuries. Eligible community members can now register to access the NNELS database, which includes more than 10,000 audiobooks to choose from. Readers can also request that a title be created in an accessible format that works for them.

To register or learn more about this service, call the TNRD Library System's Outreach Services at 1.855.552.2665 and ask about NNELS.

No Food on the Plane 103 passengers and only 40 meals got loaded on a INDIA to US flight. The Airline had messed up, and the crew was in a fix. However, one smart flight attendant has an idea. About 30 minutes into the flight she nervously announces, "I don't know how this happened but we have 103 passengers and only 40 dinners." When the passengers muttering had died down she continued, "Anyone who is kind enough to give up his/ her meal so that someone else can eat, will receive free unlimited liquor during the entire duration of the flight." Her next announcement came an hour and a half later, "if anyone wants to change his/her mind we still have 40 dinners available!"

Extra Weight A recent study has found that women who carry a little extra weight live longer than the men who mention it.

Nicola Nordic Ski Club will hold their annual event this Sunday, January 10, 10-2pm. Come to Parking Lot 3 on Kane Valley Road, bring enough chili for your group to add to the communal pot, and the club supplies the buns and drinks. There is also a free group lesson at 1pm from P2.

A World of Influence

A worldview of quilts from a small town

Kim Leclair
has lived in the Nicola Valley for more than two decades. With a background in interior design, Kim has transformed her love of textiles — particularly hand-made ethnic hand-work — into an overflowing eclectic collection of fabrics as well as her own quilts (many not quilted) pieced from new & thrifted fabric. The world of textiles that filters into the valley heavily influences Kim's quilting adventures.
