3rd annual Law Enforcement Charity Hockey Challenge

The 2016 edition of the Law Enforcement Charity Hockey Challenge takes place this weekend, February 26, 27 & 28, at the NV Memorial Arena. Puck drops at 10:30am this morning. Organizers were aiming for 8 teams, and this year they opened the Challenge to all Emergency Services.

There has been huge support this year from the community with prize items — also available for viewing at the Saturday night Cents game.

Oct-Dec police stats

NCO Staff Sergeant Sheila White presented the Merritt RCMP's 4th quarter report for Oct-Dec 2015 at this week's council meeting. Below are some points of interest.

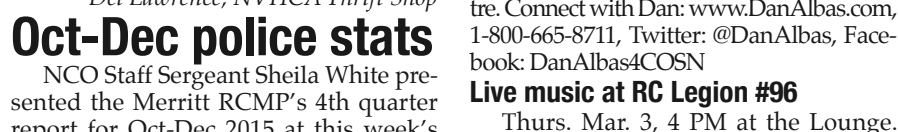

During this period, general duty police officers responded to 1545 calls for service. Regular patrols were made downtown, resulting in the arrests of intoxicated persons & the seizure of significant amounts of alcohol.

The Merritt Detachment processed 196 prisoners. They received ninety (90) 9-1-1 emergency calls, 82 of which were determined to be false. (All 911 calls are investigated to determine if an emergency exists.)

The General Investigation Section (GIS) has ongoing investigations, and continues to be involved with the Prov. Tactical Enforcement Program (PTEP), which targets gang violence and organized criminal activity. Some of their activity: a violent offender was arrested & charged for breach of conditions; several new people from the Lower Mainland have been found in Merritt believed to be involved in local drug trafficking; a prolific offender responsible for several B&Es in the community was arrested & is currently in custody; 4 local people were charged with numerous cocaine & heroin trafficking charges and possession of stolen property.

Crack cocaine continues to be the drug of choice. The source for this is the Lower Mainland & Okanagan. There also appears to be an increase in the availability of crystal meth. [Ed.: This week we see the possible arrival of fentanyl, with 2 overdoses at the Coldwater Hotel. Both overdose victims are recovering.]

Totals for all of 2015: Total police files 6485. Assaults 201. Domestic disputes 218. B&E residential 51, commercial 28. Theft of motor vehicle 25, theft from motor vehicle 68. Liquor intoxicated in public 479.
