Quote of the week

“One year today [March 10], we gathered as a group to put a stop to sewer sludge being dumped in our Beautiful Nicola Valley! We will be starting a fire in Shulus at 11:00 this morning [yesterday], to celebrate this huge milestone. One year x 5-6 trucks a day! That's a lot of sludge NOT HERE!”

Friends of the Nicola Valley

Household hazardous waste round-up

During the month of April the Lower Nicola Eco-Depot will accept household hazardous waste for safe and free disposal, ie. items marked corrosive, poisonous, ignitable or toxic. Containers with unused contents should never be put into the garbage. No business, commercial or institutional hazardous waste.

Free Disposal Day

Free disposal day will be Sun., Apr. 17, 8am-4pm at the Lower Nicola Eco-Depot. Bring in one load of material per household for free that day, ie. up to 8' (full sized) truck box OR up to 8' trailer. No business or commercial loads accepted for free. Fees will be waived for: Household garbage; demo/reno/construction material; cooling appliances; concrete & asphalt; tires on rim; mattresses, couches & other furniture; asphalt shingles and wood waste. FMI contact the TNRD at 1-877-377-8673.

Higher fines for wildfire laws

The govt is increasing fines under the Wildfire Act. Additional legislative will impact ticket fines for 19 violations under the Wildfire Act and for 7 violations under Wildfire Regulation, giving BC the highest wildfire-related violation ticket fines in the country.

For example, the fine for failing to comply with a fire restriction under the Wildfire Act will triple in cost from $345 (incl. a $45 victim surcharge) to $1,150 (incl. a $150 victim surcharge). On average, 30-40% of wildfires in British Columbia are human-caused. The 2015 fire season was one of the busiest and most expensive in recent years, with 283,400+ hectares burned & over $278 million spent on wildfire management.

Lawyers are Clever An old penny pincher had no friends. Just before he died he asked his doctor, lawyer, and pastor to gather around him at bedside. “I have always heard that you can't take it with you. But I want to disprove that theory,” he said. “I have $90,000 under my mattress, and when I die, just before they throw the dirt on me at my burial, I want you each to toss in an envelope with $30,000 within.” The three attended the funeral and each threw his envelope in the grave. On the way back from the cemetery, the pastor said, “I must confess. I needed $10,000 for my new church, so I only threw in $20,000.” The doctor then said, “I must confess too. I needed $20,000 for a new hospital I was opening up, so I only threw in $10,000.” The lawyer looked at them both and shook his head. He then said, “Gentlemen, I'm surprised, shocked, and ashamed of you. I don't see how you could dare to go against that man's final wish. I mean, I threw in my personal check for the full amount.”
