Jr. Native hockey all weekend long

The 29th annual Nicola Valley Jr. Native hockey tournament started yesterday, with 28 teams participating this year. Games run through until Sunday afternoon, at both the Merritt & Shulus arenas. For tourney founder & organizer Bil Bose, it’s closing in on 3 decades of dedication & devotion to youth hockey. Way to go Bil & good luck to all the players!

Earth Hour tomorrow

In previous years, BC Hydro has monitored the energy savings from the World Wildlife Fund’s Earth Hour – the annual global “lights out” event.

This year however, BC Hydro is unable to measure and provide results because WWF moved up Earth Hour in the month (it’s usually the last Saturday of March). With Daylight Saving Time and Earth Hour only a week apart, BC Hydro can’t factor in the load change that happens naturally with DST because there are no Saturdays in between, to use as a benchmark.

BC Hydro does want to encourage everyone to participate in Earth Hour and monitor their own electricity use using their MyHydro account at bchydro.com, and see how it directly affects their household electricity consumption.

Earth Hour 2016 takes place Saturday, March 19, 8:30pm to 9:30pm.

ley locations. Deadline to submit ready-to-hang artwork is March 30, 5pm, beginning Mar. 23, Thurs-Sat noon-6pm. FMI 378-6515, kathi.courthouse.gallery@gmail.com

Refugee sponsorship info night The Rotary Clubs of Merritt will hold a Syrian refugee information night at the NVIT lecture theatre on April 6, 7pm. For all individuals and groups wanting to find out how our community may be able to support a Syrian refugee family. Guest speakers: Brian Ayotte, Chair of Salmon Arm Coalition group for refugee sponsorship; Gudrun Malmquist, Immigrant Settlement Services.

Do you love me? Of course! Then whisper something soft & sweet in my ear. Lemon meringue pie!

The Priciest Porch Painting A man was looking for someone to paint his porch. So he hired a young lady and told her what to do. After about 30 minutes, the lady came to the door and said, “I’m done.” The man asked, “How did you get done so fast?” The lady said, “It was hard at first, but it got easier towards the end. And by the way, it’s a Ferrari, not a Porsche.”
