Future Home
Telus' Future Home is coming, starting today. You can get a sneak peek into what a home of the future could look like as a result of faster internet speeds, enabled by a fibre optic network. This comes fast on the heels of Telus' complete fibre optics build-out in Merritt.

The 560 sq. ft. Future Home, powered by TELUS Fibre, is designed to demonstrate innovative concept technology, including facial recognition software, smart fridge & smart cooktop, home monitoring sensors and cameras, and of course, the newest in home entertainment.

The Future Home will be located at City Furniture, 2025 Coutlee Ave. from March 30-April 10. Free tours will be open to the public daily on March 30 11am-6pm, then March 31-April 10 from 10am-6pm daily.

Searching for Dean
The renewed search for Dean Morrison got some province-wide attention on Sunday, with stories in both the Vancouver Sun & Province newspapers.
"On Oct. 22, 2013, Morrison, 44, suddenly vanished after being fired from his job at the Stump Lake Ranch near Kamloops along Highway 5A. His vehicle was left at the ranch, and his personal effects were still in the trailer he kept at the sprawling property where he worked as a painter. His wallet was left behind, and his mother said his bank account was not touched following his mysterious disappearance. Numerous in-depth searches were conducted by both the RCMP and the family and friends, but there has been nothing. Next month, with the help of Pattison Outdoor Advertising, a full-sized billboard ad will be placed along the highway near where Morrison was last seen." — VS & P

The Negative Double Positive An MIT linguistics professor was lecturing his class the other day. "In English," he said, "a double negative forms a positive. However, in some languages, such as Russian, a double negative remains a negative. But there isn't a single language, not one, in which a double positive can express a negative." A voice from the back of the room piped up, "Yeah, right."

Unnecessary Roughness A man took his wife, who had no interest in football, to the opening game at the local university. The home team was battered all over the field by the more dominant opponents. At one point, the referee blew his whistle; the call was "unnecessary roughness." "You mean to tell me," the woman said to her husband, "That all that roughness up until now has been NECESSARY?"
