For a Good Time, Call Jackie!

One of my ideas of a good time is enjoying fine food, and I love nothing better than to find or rediscover a great place to eat! I stopped into Espresso, Etc. the other day to buy a sandwich to take away and, while waiting for it to be prepared, I took a gander at the menu. Janet and French have expanded and improved the menu since my last visit and I was impressed! Not only do they continue to make their fabulous sandwiches with a choice of breads baked fresh daily (including gluten-free!) and real meats, like fresh roasted turkey and beef, they also produce burgers — beef, chicken, veggie, buffalo and meatloaf — and wraps, and donair. As well, they offer a variety of salads and many yummy-sounding breakfast items, home-made gourmet soups and delicious desserts. On the beverage side, there is everything from specialty organic coffees and teas, to milkshakes made the old-fashioned way, to Italian Sodas and real fruit smoothies. Not only that, but you can buy your favourite comfort foods, frozen, to take home — chili, lasagna, macaroni and cheese, and turkey pies. AND they cater! The prices are very reasonable, the quality is splendid, and the lineups are usually not long. They truly are, as they advertise, "More Than Just a Coffee Shop" and it's well worth stopping in. In fact, this has made me hungry, and I'm heading down there now to try the donair and an Italian Soda, something I haven't experienced before.

Hawaii As Morris and his wife, Sherry, were planning a vacation, they ended up in an argument, "It's 'Hawaii', I'm telling you!" Sherry said. "I never KNEW someone so stubborn! 'Hawaii' is how it's pronounced!" he replied. And so it went all the way to the vacation... As they got off the airplane, they passed a man. Morris abruptly stopped the wife and turned to the man to ask, "Now that we're on the island, you can settle an argument between my wife and me. Is this 'Hawaii' or 'Havaii'?" "This is Havaii," the man replied. "Ha!" the husband gloated to his wife. "See, didn't I tell you never to argue with me?" As they began to walk away, Morris turned back and gave the man a hearty, "Thank you!" "You're welcome!" he called back.
