NV Fish & Game Club

Update: Public fishing affair

The issue has quietly faded away — about the Nicola Valley Fish & Game Club's encounters with the Merritt RCMP (in December, NVF&GC members were charged with mischief for fishing on Corbett Lake, and in February a judge threw out the charges, for lack of evidence from Crown Council, and by extension the RCMP).

But it still doesn't sit right with the Fish & Game Club. At the centre of this incident & previous incidents at Stony & Minnie Lakes, is the question whether the public should be allowed to access BC lakes, which are all public.

A few years ago, the Ministry of the Attorney General wrote a position paper (vis-a-vis Stony Lake) stating that Stony Lake Rd, padlocked by Douglas Lake Ranch, was actually a public road & should allow public access to the lake. And this position is what guides members of the NVF&GC when they fish at Corbett Lake, which is easily accessed from the Hwy 97C public right-of-way, 15 mins. east of town.

What the NVF&GC finds the most upsetting is that the RCMP has aligned itself with the owners of Corbett Lake Lodge in their claim that NVF&GC members are trespassing on private property.

The Merritt Detachment's disclosure to the Crown Council alleged that Corbett Lake wasn't really a lake but a slough flooded in the 1960s-70s [though original Crown grants from 1912 show Corbett Lake much as it is now, and the Lodge has been operating as a fishing resort as far back as the 1950s]. They contest that the surveyed property line nips the edge of the lake, which would allow direct access onto it from the public highway right-of-way [despite a curved fenceline around the lake next to the straight line of the right-of-way]. And the description of the private dam that is supposed to have flooded the private property to create the lake, means that water would have to flow uphill [indicating a distinct lack of knowledge about the lay of the land.]

And the RCMP provided no supporting material, maps, property title, etc. for any of their claims, making their case unsubstantiated compared to the NVF&GC's presentation of all the legal documentation both in court and at their public forum earlier this year.

The fact that police refer to the Corbett Lake Lodge owners as their 'client' in the complaint of ice fishing is disconcerting. When they said: 'in their effort to provide a service to the client...', it must surely have been a failed attempt to grasp for the right word, surely they meant to say 'complainant' ... but it does make them sound like Corbett Lake Lodge's hired help.

The BC Freshwater Fishing Regulations do not exclude Corbett Lake; it is not on the short list of exceptions to the freshwater fishing regs. It's no wonder the NVF&GC feels the RCMP is colluding with wealthy landowners against the public, which has a right to access public lakes. Some members feel the RCMP is actually breaking the law — as it is an offense to obstruct 'lawful hunting and fishing'. And they say the Min. of Highways is also obstructing access with the berm topped by 2 fences that they erected between the lake and the highway during the 2007 four-laning of the road.

Police have said they hope that members of the NVF&GC won't go back to Corbett. They're also on record saying that they 'don't know what they'll do' if they are called again to the site on this issue. We'll see... no doubt.

Anyone interested in reading the RCMP's complete submission to Crown Council, can contact Rick McGowan: (250)378-5661.

Small Town Justice Two small county judges both got arrested for speeding on the same day. Rather than call for a visiting judge, each agreed to hear the other's case. The first judge took the bench while the second stood at the defendant's table and admitted his guilt. The sentencing judge immediately suspended both the fine and costs. They switched places. The second judge admitted that he was speeding, too. Thereupon the first judge immediately fined him $250 and ordered him to pay court costs. The second judge was furious. "I suspended your fine and costs, but you threw the book at me!" he fumed. The first judge looked at him and replied, "This is the second such case we've had in here today. Someone has to get tough about all this speeding!"

Computer Games Finally, after years of testing business software, I landed my dream job -- trying out computer games. My first day at work I was listing various ideas in a spreadsheet program when my manager walked by. He looked at my screen for a moment, then said sternly, "I'd better not catch you using spreadsheets on company time when you know you should be playing games."

THE GLOBAL GOALS For Sustainable Development

10 REDUCED

Reduce inequality within and among countries

"We cannot seek achievement for ourselves and forget about progress and prosperity for our community... Our ambitions must be broad enough to include the aspirations and needs of others, for their sakes and for our own"

—Cesar Chavez

TARGETS • By 2030, progressively achieve and sustain income growth of the bottom 40 per cent of the population at a rate higher than the national average

• By 2030, empower and promote the social, economic and political inclusion of all, irrespective of age, sex, disability, race, ethnicity, origin, religion or economic or other status

• Ensure equal opportunity and reduce inequalities of outcome, including by eliminating discriminatory laws, policies and practices and promoting appropriate legislation, policies and action in this regard

• Adopt policies, especially fiscal, wage and social protection policies, and progressively achieve greater equality

• Improve the regulation and monitoring of global financial markets and institutions and strengthen the implementation of such regulations

• Ensure enhanced representation and voice for developing countries in decision-making in global international economic and financial institutions in order to deliver more effective, credible, accountable and legitimate institutions

• Facilitate orderly, safe, regular and responsible migration and mobility of people, including through the implementation of planned and well-managed migration policies

• Implement the principle of special and differential treatment for developing countries, in particular least developed countries, in accordance with World Trade Organization agreements

• By 2030, reduce to less than 3 per cent the transaction costs of migrant remittances and eliminate remittance corridors with costs higher than 5 per cent

Help host a Syrian refugee family

If suitable housing could be found, Merritt would be considered to host a government-sponsored refugee family. Looking to a 3-bedroom house within city limits, reasonable rent. If the housing can come together, organizers would then be looking for donations of furniture, household items, etc. If you can help out with housing, contact Becky (250)525-0035.
