2 for 1 sale a bust

Two males from the Lower Mainland are being charged with possession for the purpose of trafficking after Merritt RCMP seized several kilograms of marijuana and mushrooms at a road side stand outside the Merritt Rockin River fest site.

On July 29 at 5:30pm, Merritt members were patrolling the Merritt Riverfest site. Before reaching the site members observed a sandwich board displayed on the side of the road that appeared to be advertising the sale of marijuana.

Members stopped to speak with the two males who had a makeshift stand set up along the side of the road and were displaying a business certificate for a company out of the Lower Mainland. The sandwich board proclaimed that it was a marijuana supply center and was offering a two for one sale.

After a search of the stand and a subsequent search warrant of the hotel where the two Lower Mainland males were staying, members seized in total: approximately 2000 rolled marijuana cigarettes, 1.1 kg of dried mushrooms, 4.5 kg of dried bagged marijuana, score sheets, drug paraphernalia and a sandwich board.

The males were released to appear in court October 31 in Merritt. File is still under investigation.

WildSafeBC raising bear awareness

WildSafeBC Community Co-ordinator Mandy Ross will be out in the TNRD throughout the summer tagging garbage bins that are placed out too early. She will also be offering education on reducing bear attractants around homes & properties.

Much of the TNRD is bear country, so it is important to keep garbage bins in a secure location until 5 a.m. on days of collection to ensure the safety of both wildlife and the community. Bears easily become habituated to garbage and become a danger to the community and themselves if they start to seek out garbage as a food source. Please keep your bins secure and free from smells as much as possible.

Contact Mandy at tnrd@wildsafebc.com for more information or for tips on managing wildlife attractants around your home.

How about ASK Wellness heading out of town

Re: Ask Wellness Society heads downtown (Merritt Herald Tues. Jul 26, 2016)

Since when is it a priority of BC Housing and ASK Wellness to use tax money to help street people first and foremost, before seniors on low incomes in the Trade Winds Apartments?

A government that allows a management company — and pays them with tax money — to help street people while they ignore low income seniors, should be voted out of office. Tax payers foot the bill for drug addicts to get a free ride through life. They are provided with free naloxone so they can continue to use drugs should they overdose. That isn't helping addicts, it's promoting more drug use at taxpayers' expense. This situation is warped!

BC Housing and ASK Wellness are both contributing to the attraction and growth of drug addicts and drug dealers in this community while putting the general public at risk. They are also increasing the number of drug addicts by bringing clients into the city from other communities. (The ASK Wellness Society also manages an apartment complex in Kamloops that has become one of the biggest slum residences within that city. Is this what the City of Merritt wants also?)

ASK Wellness and BC Housing get no toot from my horn to make their management or society look good. Waste of tax money, period! Blatant disregard for low income seniors living in the Trade Winds, lack of enforcement of the "No Smoking and Drug Use" in the building, continually driving low income seniors out on purpose. Yep. One way for Ask Wellness to increase their housing inventory for street people. Trade Winds does not have a 'smoke and drug free environment'. I had to move out on March 31, 2016 because of an unhealthy and unsafe environment while smokers and drug addicts continue with their habits.

Ex-tenant of Trade Winds Apartments, Pat O'Grady

Words Not Yet In The Dictionary, part 2

ELBONICS (el bon' iks) n. The actions of two people maneuvering for one armrest in a movie theater.

ELECELLERATION (el a cel er ay' shun) n. The mistaken notion that the more you press an elevator button the faster it will arrive.

FRUST (frust) n. The small line of debris that refuses to be swept onto the dust pan and keeps backing a person across the room until he finally decides to give up and sweep it under the rug.

LACTOMANGULATION (lak' to man gyu lay' shun) n. Manhandling the "open here" spout on a milk container so badly that one has to resort to the 'illegal' side.

NEONPHANCY (ne on' fan see) n. A fluorescent light bulb struggling to come to life.

PEPPIER (pehp ee ay') n. The waiter at a fancy restaurant whose sole purpose seems to be walking around asking diners if they want ground pepper.

THE GLOBAL GOALS

For Sustainable Development

17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

Strengthen the means of implementation and revitalize the global partnership for sustainable development

"Our problems are man-made, therefore they may be solved by man. And man can be as big as he wants. No problem of human destiny is beyond human beings." —John F. Kennedy

TARGETS

Technology • Enhance North-South, South-South and triangular regional & international cooperation on and access to science, technology & innovation and enhance knowledge sharing on mutually agreed terms, including through improved coordination among existing mechanisms, in particular at the United Nations level, and through a global technology facilitation mechanism

• Promote the development, transfer, dissemination and diffusion of environmentally sound technologies to developing countries on favourable terms

• Fully operationalize the technology bank and science, technology and innovation capacity-building mechanism for least developed countries by 2017 and enhance the use of enabling technology, in particular information and communications technology

Trade • Promote a universal, rules-based, open, non-discriminatory and equitable multilateral trading system under the WTO, through the conclusion of negotiations under its Doha Development Agenda

• Significantly increase the exports of developing countries, with a view to doubling the least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020

• Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating market access To be continued...
