$250,000 additional funding for NVIT

NVIT will be able to offer a variety of holistic, experiential and cultural learning activities at both of its campuses and in First Nations communities across BC, thanks to $250,000 Aboriginal Service Plans funding it has received for 2016-17 from the Ministry of Advanced Education.

Aboriginal Service Plans are part of ongoing activities to support the Aboriginal Post-Secondary Education Training Policy and Framework and Action Plan (Aboriginal Framework). The provincial government launched this plan in 2012 to help Aboriginal learners succeed in an integrated, relevant and effective BC post-secondary education system.

“NVIT applies the ASP funding to various programs and services that directly benefit our learners. These services include supporting prospective and current learners as they transition to and from post-secondary and the work place. Overall, the ASP funds assist NVIT in delivering the relevant and unique learning experiences one would anticipate at BC’s Aboriginal Public Post-Secondary Institute,” said NVIT president Ken Tourand.

Mike MacDonald live

The King of Canadian Comedy, Mike MacDonald, will perform this Friday at the Merritt Desert Inn, 8pm, $20. Mike has been performing across North America for more than 30 years, and his popularity increases! He’s done tv talk shows, tv specials, festivals & Gemini Awards... now he’ll do Merritt. Not to be missed. Don’t wait to get your tickets at the door!

Opinion

You never know what will be Ec Dev!

Interestingly, yesterday morning on the walk to work — the same day the police would shut them down — I was asked politely in heavily Dutch- or German-accented English by 2 young European travellers, where they could find the medical marijuana dispensary...

They’d been sent in the general direction of the dispensary, but as it was not yet 10am the place was completely shuttered and not at all identifiable. They had walked right past it, but once they found it, they happily set down their backpacks & waited for the place to open.

So it may be that word’s out that Merritt has/had a compassionate club... another piece of the puzzle of Merritt’s economic development... —K Leclair

Honeyed plums with cheese

1 cup fresh goat cheese
1 cup plain yogurt
1/4 cup honey
12 Italian prune plums, pitted and quartered
1 cup walnut pieces

Mix cheese and yogurt well, adding 2 tablespoons honey. Refrigerate until ready to serve.

Mix plums and walnuts in a bowl. Heat remaining honey in a saucepan until it becomes thin, and pour over fruit.

To serve, spoon cheese onto each of 6 plates and top with honeyed fruit.

This House

"This house," said the real estate salesman, "has both its good points and its bad points. To show you I'm honest, I'm going to tell you about both. The disadvantages are that there is a chemical plant one block south and a stockyard one block north." "What are the advantages?" inquired the prospective buyer. "The advantage is that you can always tell which way the wind is blowing."

Coffee Spill When my son was about 4 years old, we were driving down the road. I took a drink of my coffee, and the lid came off and spilled all over me. I mumbled a little bit, and pulled over to wipe up the mess. My son rolled his eyes, shook his finger at me and said, "That is exactly why you are NOT supposed to drink and drive!"
