Congratulations, Ty!

Fire protection for Harmon Estate homes

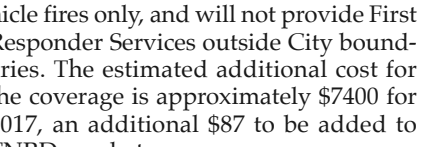

At their meeting last week, the TNRD Board adopted a bylaw amendment that will expand the boundaries of the Area "M" and "N" fire protection service area to include 37 properties at Harmon Estates, on the north side of Nicola Lake, to be serviced by Merritt Fire Rescue, starting Jan. 1, 2017. This after 76% of residents returned petitions in favour of extending the service, in September.

MFRD will attend house fires and vehicle fires only, and will not provide First Responder Services outside City boundaries. The estimated additional cost for the coverage is approximately $7400 for 2017, an additional $87 to be added to TNRD yearly taxes.

New AED at the Merritt Legion

The Canadian Legion Branch 96 is the location of Merritt's latest Automated External Defibrillator (AED). Legion members received training from Merritt Fire Rescue at a workshop on Sunday. At the same time Legion members purchased their own AED, they made a donation of $1500 to the MFRD to help replace one of their older units. Other AEDs are sparsely located around town: Conayt Friendship Society, Merritt Seniors' Centre, City Hall, Aquatic Centre, Civic Centre & the Masonic Temple.

My wife claims I'm a baseball fanatic. She says all I ever read about is baseball. All I ever talk about is baseball. All I ever think about is baseball. I told her she's way off base.

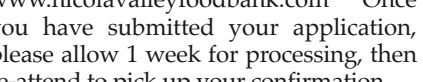

Housework Hubby
