Cutting your own Christmas tree
British Columbians interested in cutting their own Christmas tree must obtain their permit online or from their local Forest District or FrontCounter BC office. Free use permits are provided for personal use only — selling a tree cut under a Christmas tree permit or cutting in an unauthorized area is illegal.

Keep in mind: • Leave home prepared. Bring ropes, gloves, tools, tire chains, a first aid kit, a mobile phone and warm clothing. • Be prepared for logging trucks: www.bcforestsafe.org/files/tk_pdfs/gde_resrd.pdf • Make sure you have found the tree you will use before cutting to avoid wasting forest resources. Some permits specify only one tree can be cut. • Choose a tree that can be cut near the base and is easy to transport. Wasted tree remains left in the forest form a summer fire hazard. • Clean up and remove all debris associated with your activity.

Nicola Valley COMMUNITY Arts Council

It is time to put "community" back in the Community Arts Council. Its mandate is to be the local umbrella organization for local arts and culture. When fully active, it can assist a wide range of groups to make their events and programs successful. There is so much interest, talent and energy in our local arts scene, as seen in the Community Christmas events, the Film Society's movies at NVIT, and the recent Love to Dance performances. Informal opportunities to learn, display talent, and enjoy the shows are popping up all over town. This makes our community a wonderful place for us, the people who live here, regardless of whether tourists come or businesses stay. Here is our chance to really make a difference in the arts scene in Merritt.

A couple years ago, several people stepped up at the last minute to keep the NVCAC going when it ran out of active Board members. Now it is time for the rest of us to show that their efforts were not in vain. Others are ready to come on the Board and help make it the lively and broad-based community organization it was meant to be. The NVCAC is eligible to apply for grants and give tax-receipted donations to help make things happen here. All that is needed is for our Merritt community to show its interest and support. Memberships are still only $10/year and forms can be found at nvcacouncil.com or at the Courthouse Gallery. The annual general meeting on Dec. 8 — this where we make a new start this year.

NV Community Arts Council Annual General Meeting, 7:30pm, Thursday, Dec. 8, at the Courthouse Art Gallery, 1840 Nicola Ave. — Jean Kiegerl

NOTICE: To the people who have Christmas lights flashing blue and red in their backyard..... can you remove it? Every time I pass, I think it's the cops and I have to remove my foot from the accelerator, slam on my brakes, put my seatbelt on, throw my phone on the floor, hide my bottle of Beer, Swallow my joint, and hide my gun... thank you for your understanding..... Merritt Grapevine

And the Winner Is The father of five children had won a toy at a raffle. He called his kids together to ask which one should have the present. "Who is the most obedient?" he asked. "Who never talks back to mother? Who does everything she says?" Five small voices answered in unison. "Okay, dad, you get the toy."

Festival of Trees
Congratulations to everyone who entered trees, and voted! The voting results are: 1st Place - CIBC; 2nd Place - Merritt Dance Society; 3rd Place - Little Skippers Day Care.
