Happy anniversary, French immersion! Last evening at Collettville School, they celebrated 35 years of French immersion in Merritt. It was through the hard work of a very determined group of parents back in 1982 that French immersion was incorporated into School District 58.

Enrolment has grown continually over the years, and in the early 2000s, Collettville School went all-French. For the coming school year, anticipated enrolment is 175 students.

Lt-Gov Judy Guichon receives honorary degree

Lieutenant Governor Judith Guichon has attended Vancouver Island University's convocation ceremonies every year in her official capacity as the representative of the Crown in BC to address graduates. This year was no exception, but on Tuesday, she received some extra recognition — an Honorary Doctorate of Laws.

VIU President and Vice-Chancellor Dr. Ralph Nilson said "Her Honour is a staunch supporter of many of the values and initiatives that drive VIU, from building respectful relationships with our First Nations partners, to our efforts to ensure access for all who wish to pursue a post-secondary education."

For a Good Time, Call Jackie
