"Read the riot act"

Mayor makes news on weather.com

"The mayor of a city along the Coquihalla Highway wants the provincial government to "read the riot act" to all maintenance contractors in BC.

It comes after a six hour closure along the Coquihalla on Sunday night, because of problems believed to have been caused by snowy conditions.

Mayor of Merritt Neil Menard says the province should communicate the importance of making sure a roadway isn't shut down for hours if there is a crash or spin-out.

"The workers do their job, they do it very, very well. But it's the company itself that calls the shots of when do they go out."

He says 2 years ago, there were talks between his city and the government.

"And it did improve and last winter wasn't a bad winter. They did a good job. But I mean we're starting winter again and how many times has the Coke been closed already this year?"

Menard says he'll be going back to the Ministry if long closures continue."

Re: Rear view Mirror

Rear-view mir-ror. Pronounced: rirvyōō 'miror (noun): a small angled mirror fixed inside the windshield of a motor vehicle, enabling the driver to see the vehicle or road behind. Alt: Regarding the Merritt Morning Mirror, stories from the past, around 20 years old, since the MMMirror was published 1995-1998.

Well, Friday's Rear View Mirror story, Close Call at the Adelphi, has created a bit of a ruckus... to the detriment of Alex Wilson, owner of Mountain City Roofing, the last roofing contractor to have worked on the Adelphi Hotel.

One headline-only-reading, short attention span reader — who had engaged Alex to fix his roof — cancelled the contract after reading our Rear View Mirror story on Friday. Unbelievable! Imagine! Like a doctor flipping through an MRI result... glancing at the title & barely scanning the report... then prescribing Aspirin for your cancer!

So, in the interest of righting a wrong... MMM PSA: need a roof repair? contact Alex at 250-525-0390 or mountaincityroofing@gmail.com "Totally professional & completely satisfactory", according to Adelphi owner, Jay Ollek.

A genie came out of a lamp, but he would only grant one wish: I had to choose between perfect memory or a million bucks. I put all the money in the safe, but now I can't remember the combination.
