Christmas is a time for remembering

...special people and there are many in the Nicola Valley we often think of fondly — our Reid Ave neighbours, Trinity United Church friends, Ed's coffee buddies, his friends at Seniors Bowling, Wally Archachan and the Cents fans who looked out for Ed and so many more who touched our lives.

We are now settled in Courtenay, (a snow-free community Dec 19th!), we enjoy hearing from friends, give us a call if you are on the Island.

Our Warmest Wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Gloria and Ed Michayluk

BC truckers push for 'bare pavement standard' on Interior highways

Jack-knifed semis and shut-down sections of the Coquihalla Highway are common features in the news this time of year, but BC Trucking Association President Louise Yako is hopeful a crucial change is on the way.

Yako wants a "bare pavement standard" to be added to the new maintenance contracts, which have come up for renewal.

"When maintenance companies are clearing off the highways of snow and ice, they have to get to bare pavement, as opposed to leaving a layer of snow or ice or grit," she explains.

Yako is also calling for more participation by the province in feedback sessions.

"Unless the ministry hears those comments directly from the users of the highways, it's hard for them to judge whether the public and whether the trucking industry is satisfied with the service."

She adds however that truckers understand no one can control mother nature — and sometimes it's not safe for even maintenance crews to be out.

Yako says clear communication is essential between drivers, trucking companies, and customers about the safest decisions, particularly at a time of year when there is huge demand for certain goods and fully-stocked shelves.

Craigmont Mine shows more potential

This year, Nicola Mining's exploration program has extended their 'skarn zone', their main viable mineral deposits, by 150 metres, increasing it to over 250 metres — and it looks like it could extend even further.

According to Nicola Mining CEO Peter Espig, "The results of diamond drilling in 2017 are extremely significant as it opens up the potential over the whole New Craigmont property for continued significant copper mineralization. We have several key zones that combine to make a very exciting project."

The company is in the process of re-starting mill feed processing operations at its state-of-the-art mill and tailings facility at Craigmont. It has already signed 4 mill profit share agreements with high grade gold producers. The mill is able to process gold and silver mill feed via gravity and floatation processes. It also owns Treasure Mountain, the high-grade silver property near Hope.

What do snowmen wear on their heads? Ice caps.

Home for the Holidays A student was heading home for the holidays. When she got to the airline counter, she presented her ticket to New York and as she gave the agent her luggage she asked, "I'd like you to send my green suitcase to Hawaii, and my red suitcase to London." The confused agent said, "I'm sorry, we can't to that." "Really? I am so relieved to hear you say that because, that's exactly what you did to my luggage last year!"

WHAT'S ON
the Arts Council Nicola Valley Community Arts Council
Courthouse Arts Gallery News!
It was Solstice Evening at the Gallery last night, with Kate Anderson leading us in a Christmas sing along. The Winter Artisan Show, put on by Mischelle Pierce and her talented group was the background for a fun evening. Munchies, mulled apple cider, and an inspired meditation ended the event. We'd love to do that again!
The show is on until Jan 13th.
We are open Dec 22 and 23, then closed until Thursday Jan 4th.
So be sure to come see us before Christmas!
Great gifts and beautiful things for yourself!
Local pottery, stained glass, jewelry, upcycled clothes and leather bags, original art and cards, oils and creams, honey, wooden bowls, gourd birdhouses... and Christmasy things!
