Lifestyle: Clothes and Colours

A two-week Gallery fundraiser event. Gently used clothes and items for sale! And look for two workshops to add to the fun: "What Colours Am I?" Identify colours that work for you personally... Workshop times TBA (Interested in contributing gently worn clothes for this event? NVAC members call Jano at 250-315-3437 Clothing unsold to be picked up or donated after Jan 25th)

Reminder:

Alternative approval process at City Hall

If the electorate wish to oppose the borrowing of $2,209,000 they must sign a response form at City Hall by 4:30pm, January 19, 2018. One can download a form, bring it in, or submit using a complicated procedure by email.

Based on numbers quoted by the City, seems the final cost including interest will be over $3 million, on a 25-year loan.

I think many citizens are not aware of the cost, or the deadline.

Richie Gage, Merritt BC

[Editor: In this process, 556 electors must submit completed forms in order to force a proper discussion & vote about the expenditure. According to online 'mortgage calculators', monthly payments will be close to $11,500, putting the total interest near $925,00, and total payments more than $3,132,000 over the 25 years.

The loan is to proceed with phase II of the Fire Hall Expansion which will address "long-identified health and safety issues caused by a lack of facilities and space: facilities for female firefighters; Work Experience Program dormitory (currently housed in a leased trailer on site); decontamination facilities; sanitary turn-out gear room; training room & Emergency Operations Centre."]

On-request service, Sundays, longer hours & a new bus

Major improvements started yesterday for the Merritt Transit System.

The new On-Request Service will provide curb-to-curb service during four 30-minute trip windows each weekday. People wishing to use this service will need to call the Merritt Transit office at 250-378-4080 at least 24 hrs in advance to set up their pick-up time. Service will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis. This is not handyDART service

There will also be 4 additional new weekday trips to route 1 North End, and frequency improvements on route 4 Nicola. And operating hours will be expanded into the evening on weekdays, as well as service on Sundays.

And to make that all possible, a third ARBOC (with low floor & kneeling capability) bus will be added to the fleet. The new bus is 1 of 11 that have been arriving in 5 communities across the province.

Check out the new schedule & services at: bctransit.com/merritt/

What lies on its back, 100 feet in the air? A dead centipede.

Loose Fitting Clothing April teaches many aerobic classes. She told a lady who was looking to sign up for the class to just wear loose fitting clothing to the class. "Honey," the lady replied, "if I had any loose fitting clothing, I wouldn't be signing up for an exercise class."

A Duck and A Chicken A duck is standing next to a busy road, cars zooming past while he waits for a break in traffic. A chicken walks up to him and says, "Don't do it, man. You'll never hear the end of it."

Ian Webster wraps it up

The Nicola Valley has lost perhaps its MOST devoted EVER chronicler of sporting activities, with the publication of last week's Herald. Ian Webster announced his retirement from the Herald's sports section, and that was it, it was over.

Ian found his second vocation from the inside out, reporting on sports events — in the schools & in the community — while teaching, coaching or reffing. Then over the past 8 & a half years, he seemed to be everywhere that anyone was doing anything! In that time, he has no doubt known everyone doing sports in this valley, and their parents, their siblings & probably their kids, too! Generations!

And on top of all that, his coverage of the Merritt Centennials has been monumental... If the measure is thousands of split-second action shots all sorted & filed & compiled by player name, number & game date — for the past MANY years — then Ian wins the prize! So happy retirement, Ian! Well-deserved!

Open Mic Nights move to Friday

Open Mic Nights in January - Fridays starting January 5th at the Kekuli Cafe, 2051 Voght St. Sign up starts at 6:30pm, open mic from 7-9pm. Come perform at the Open Mic Nights or grab a coffee to sit back and listen. All are welcome! FMI 315-8585, openmicnightsmerritt@gmail.com
