Clarence Bernard Rose

March 15, 1936 – Feb. 20, 2018

Born and raised on a small farm near Pelly, Sask, Mr. Clarence Bernard Rose passed away in Merritt on Tuesday February 20th .

Left to cherish his memory are his loving wife of 59 years, Verna, 3 sons Derwyn (Brenda),Robert and Kevin (Deb), as well as grandchildren, siblings, and many nieces and nephews.

A Funeral Service will be held on Saturday February 24th at 1pm at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Merritt, with Father Andy Takach. Prayers will be held on Friday evening at 7pm.

Condition of the Coq concerning for tourists

Mayor Menard is not the only one voice ongoing concerns over the condition of the Coquihalla. This is from the Vernon Morning Star:

“Big White officials are concerned with a growing number of complaints about the highway that links the resort to its most significant client base.

‘The reliability of the Coquihalla has never been this prominent in conversations with us,’ said Michael Ballingall, senior vice-president of sales and marketing at Big White Ski Resort. ‘We hear about it every day.’

All in all, it’s the foundation of a perception problem that Ballingall says spells big trouble for tourism.

‘A good portion of the tourism business is centred around perception, and when it comes to the Coquihalla, it’s at an all-time low,’ he said.

That, he said, means it’s time to act.

‘If someone asked what we’d do, I’d say the laws and the fines (for rigs) to chain up should be addressed,’ he said, adding the fine’s for non-compliance are not high enough to obey the law.

He’d also like to see messaging change. When closure alerts are issued, he said there isn’t a great deal of follow up.

‘We can only alert the powers that be on what the consumer is saying about the road,’ he said.

Through that process he hopes some change can be delivered—as has been the case previously, ie. avalanche protocols through the Rogers Pass, which were a similar concern at one point.”
