Rainbow crosswalk

EVERYONE's talking about City Council's decision this week to not allow MSS students to create a rainbow crosswalk — like many other communities including Vancouver, Fort Langley, New Westminster, Victoria, Courtenay, Kelowna, Vernon, Castlegar, Terrace, Smithers, Prince George and Masset — even though the School District offered to cover the costs.

It was that eternal fear of 'setting a precedent' that seems to be the culprit here, as with many other issues (actually!). Councillors expressed support for the cause & for inclusion, but couldn't get past the fear that SOMEONE or EVERYONE will be coming out of the woodwork for their own crosswalk — perhaps the Cents at the arena, Rotarians at Rotary Park, etc.

Well, Mr. Mayor, please add the Lilac Conspiracy to your list! We'd love a lilac crosswalk somewhere, and we'll pay, too.

Lord knows this town needs some sparks of colour during the long drab season, and more out-of-the-box creative thinking like these students have proposed. Honestly! There is no downside to a rainbow crosswalk! — Kim Leclair

Congrats to charity hockey tournament

Organizers & participants of the every-growing Law Enforcement Charity Hockey Challenge raised over $22,000 for the BC Children's Hospital Foundation during their weekend event. This tops last year's total of $18,500. Waytago!

'Tomato Red' screening

The Kamloops Film Festival will screen Tomato Red, a film shot in the Thompson area, and in a few locations in Merritt on Sat., March 3, 6pm. There will be a Q&A after the movie 8pm with Oscar-nominated Irish director Juanita Wilson. FMI www.kamloopsfilmfest.ca

More Coq stats

In February alone this year, the highway has been closed partially or fully 9 times, 2 of which were due to fatal vehicle collisions.

According to Danielle Pope with the Ministry of Transportation and Infrastructure: "We are on track this year to have a larger number of closures, but not out of line with some other years in the past". The ministry says last winter, the Coquihalla between Merritt and Hope, was fully closed 19 times, the most in the past 10 years.

According to VSA's spokesperson, Bob Gilowski, this winter has been quite different than last year's. "We did have quite a significant snowfall this past January, especially when we compare it to last year". This year, 235 cm of snow fell near the Coquihalla Summit, compared to just 80 cm the year before.

If you're here for the yodeling lesson... please form an orderly orderly orderly orderly queue.

Did you hear about the two guys who stole a calendar? They each got six months.

Two fish are in a tank... One says to the other, "Do you know how to drive this thing?"

I used to have a dog that did magic tricks... It was a labracadabrador!

My wife has left me because I'm too insecure... No wait, she's back.
She just went to make a cup of tea...

Tobacco Free Tuesday challenge

Held on the first Tuesday of every month, the BC Lung Association's Tobacco-Free Tuesdays contest provides aspiring quitters the incentive to quit smoking for 24 hours for their chance to win $250 cash — about the equivalent a pack-a-day smoker will save after a month of being smoke-free. The contest is open to all British Columbians 19 year or older who are current smokers as well as those who have recently quit within the last three months. The next Tobacco Free Tuesday contest is March 6. Visit TobaccoFreeTuesday.com before midnight March 5, 2018 to enter.

Rugged Little Thing

As part of the next Home Routes concert, Saskatoon's husband & wife Ryan and Jille Shotton, aka Rugged Little Thing will put on a show next week on Tuesday March 6 at the Country Music Hall of Fame, sponsored by the Nicola Valley Community Arts Council. They blend old time, bluegrass, and folk music. Doors open at 6:30pm, show at 7pm. $20 at the door to pay the artists.

Tickets are only $10 and available at Black's Pharmacy, Brambles Bakery and online at factotumco.ca. They are backed by the 2018 JUNO Experience Music Program, and presented by Friends of Sayso and Factotumco. [Ed.: dungbeatle concerts have been rare events these last few years, and these tickets will go fast!]
