Merritt man dies in Northern BC

A logging truck crash in northern BC has claimed the life of a Merritt man — police have not released his name.

Police say it happened early Wednesday just after 6am on a Forest Service Road north of Fort St. James.

"On scene police discovered that a loaded logging truck had gone off the road and down a 15-foot embankment," says North District Cpl. Madonna Saunderson. "The crash caused the logs to shift into the cab, trapping the driver. The driver, and lone occupant, a 44 year old man from Merritt, was pronounced deceased at the scene."

She says the investigation is ongoing and police continue to gather forensic evidence to help determine the cause.

Cents now out of the play-offs

The Wenatchee Wild won Wednesday evening's game, taking the Centennials out of the play-offs!

"We played well," said Brian Barrett, "but we couldn't come back from their 3 quick-succession goals. We had a great team, this year, a great group of guys."

Letter to the editor

Mahatma Gandhi once said

...that we must become the change we want to see. The question is: are we as a community capable of such change? Between barring truckers from the town proper, and rejecting a beautiful symbol of the gay community: the rainbow, I'm beginning to have my doubts. We need to learn how to be welcoming, open-minded & capable of thinking outside the box. Only then will be grasp the essence & true meaning of change.

Kamloops Film Festival

'Indian Horse' by Richard Wagamese

The Kamloops Film Festival's Saturday March 10th screening of Richard Wagamese's Indian Horse at Hotel 540, 6pm is sold out. However, they've added an additional screening earlier in the day, at 10am. Those tickets are only available at the door.

Just before the evening screening, starting at 5pm, there will be a small tribute to the late Kamloops Aboriginal writer who passed away last year. The 30 minute tribute will feature speakers with personal and professional connections to Richard who want to share their thoughts on his profound legacy as a writer and person.

Richard Wagamese spoke at NVIT a couple years ago. He has published 5 novels & 2 memoirs. His work contributes to non-native people's understanding of the experiences of native people from both an historical and contemporary standpoint. Mr. Wagamese has contributed to the re-establishment of native teachings by using traditional storytelling methods in all aspects of his career that has included radio, television and newspapers, ensuring oral literature is alive and vibrant. The novel he was working on before his death will be published later this summer. FMI

What do you call a person without a son? Per.

Chocolate When I look at chocolate, I hear two voices in my head. The first one says: "You need to eat that chocolate." The other voice goes: "You heard correctly, now eat the chocolate."

Newspapers Are Old School I asked my daughter if she'd seen my newspaper. She told me that newspapers are old school. She said that people use tablets nowadays and handed me her iPad. The fly didn't stand a chance.

Congratulations

...to the 8 honourees of Women In Actions Int'l Women's Day Celebration: Keri Cooke, Carrie Ware, Felicity Peat, Lisa DeWinter-Garcia, Rena Jones, Becky Puterbough, Ariel Swayze & Krista Minar.
