Tick time again

Ticks are officially out in full force in the Nicola Valley!

Not all ticks carry the bacteria for Lyme Disease, and there is only a very small chance of ticks giving it to you. However, since it is such a serious disease, it is worth taking steps to avoid being bitten. There are other diseases passed on by ticks however they are rare in BC. Certain ticks may release a toxin that can cause temporary paralysis, so it's important to remove the whole tick as soon as possible.

Avoiding ticks: • Walk on cleared trails wherever possible. • Wear light colored clothing, tuck your shirt into your pants and tuck your pants into your boots or socks. • Put insect repellent containing DEET on all uncovered skin. Re-apply as frequently as directed on the containers. • Check clothing and scalp (covered or not) when leaving an area where ticks may live. • Regularly check household pets for ticks.

Introducing Mike Banghu

Local eclectic Mike Bhangu will be sharing thoughts & writings with us, as a regular feature. Mike is an Amazon best-selling author, and background (mostly) actor. Check him out as a Mexican-American in an episode of the TV show Timeless (s.1, ep.5) now showing on Netflix. He's also participated in 20+ tv shows & big budget films.

Mike's interests & topics of study are wide-ranging, and he has published 10 non-fiction books which delve into history, theology, religion, philosophy, politics, popular culture, and spiritualism.

It's just a quick search of his name on Amazon and YouTube to see the books he has available & to watch his animations that explore some of the ideas.

The first topic he'll explore with us will be about the pyramids! So stay tuned!

Tougher rules & fines to reduce wildfire risks

Effective immediately, the BC govt has increased some wildfire-related penalties up to $100,000, to assist with fire prevention and discourage irresponsible off-road vehicle use.

All off-road vehicles are now required to have a spark arrestor installed when operating on Crown land. A spark arrestor is a small screen or other device that is installed in an exhaust system to stop sparks or other exhaust residue from exiting the tailpipe. Many new models of ORVs already have a spark arrestor. Owners of older models that do not have them will need to get them installed to be able to operate the ORV on Crown land.

A contravention could result in a violation ticket fine of $460 or an administrative monetary penalty of up to $10,000 if an ORV without a spark arrestor is operating at a time or place where there is a risk of a wildfire starting.

If a wildfire starts, the operator could receive a violation ticket fine of $575, an administrative monetary penalty of up to $10,000, or a court fine up to $1,000,000 and/or up to three years in jail. The person responsible could also be ordered to pay all fire-fighting and associated costs.

There are also increased fines for wildfire risks associated with industrial activities on Crown Lands. fcmfbcinfo.for.gov.bc.ca/
