Outgoing B.C. Lieutenant-Governor Judith Guichon, to The Globe And Mail 4 days before the end of her (exciting) term

Pine St. rezoning

First & second readings of the rezoning bylaw for a 20-home development on Pine St. in Collettville are now back on the agenda for the next Council meeting on May 8.

The proponents of the rezoning application attended Tuesday evening's meeting to request that Council revisit their application — at least to a public hearing.

"My request is that you allow the citizens of Merritt the right to be heard on our application. To do that, you must hold a public hearing. Our application complies with Merritt's OCP, and your staff supports it," real estate agent/investor Georgia Clement told Council.

Council did not pass first reading at the February 27 meeting when the project was first proposed. Councillor Brown reminded the other councillors of their obligation to due diligence in the matter, and noted that the petitions brought forth initially (against) and this week (for) are not relevant until the public hearing stage.

Councillor Goetz defended Council's not passing first reading back in Feb., by saying: there was no physical presence of the developers & supporters, only those against the project turned up at the meeting. "Those were the voices we heard. Now this evening we hear your voices".

As part of the rezoning process, applicants are advised when their project is to come before Council. There is no requirement for them to attend... But word is that council's preference is to see the support in the room. They don't like to give anything unless the applicant attends the meeting.

Errata Pyramids Part 3: Mystery schools

In the printed version of Wednesday's MMMarket edition, Thoth was identified as the "god of writing, magic, wisdom, and the moon." This was added to the story, qualifying Thoth in a manner not approved by author Mike Bhangu.

Mike clarified Thoth: It is said he reincarnated as a mystic three times so far, and will be born yet again. The word "thought" evolves from the name "Thoth". He is said to have written many thousands of books in his lifetime.

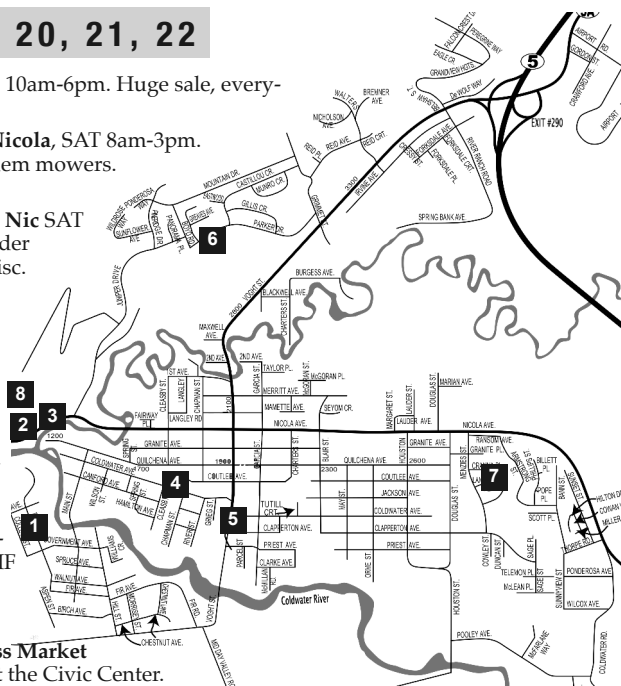

Be sure to watch for the continuation next week.

Story of Four People This is the story of four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was asked to do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it. Consequently, it wound up that Nobody told Anybody, so Everybody blamed Somebody.
