"All addiction is an escape from pain"

... according to Dr Gabor Maté, MD, speaker, teacher and bestselling author from Vancouver, BC. He says that addictions come from emotional loss, and exist to soothe the pain resulting from that loss. He says, "Don't ask the question 'why the addiction,' but 'why the pain?'"

Over the years I have researched his work extensively and have found his approach to healing superb! I've learned that we must show compassion for those addicted which in turn gives our family, friends, community and ourselves the emotional space to heal. Katrina Bennett, Registered Kinesiologist
