The deadline to request a voting package is midnight Nov. 23. Eligible voters that haven't received a voting package can get one: at elections.bc.ca/ovr, 1-800-661-8683, and at a Service BC Centre. Completed voting packages must be received by 4:30pm Nov 30. As of Nov 16, approx. 597,300 ballot packages have been returned (18% of registered voters). Emergency Dept. fundraising update

A big thank you to sisters Gail Moyes and Lynn Newhouse who both made a donation in memory of their parents Harriet and Dr. Alan Newhouse.

The Nicola Valley Health Care Endowment Foundation is in the final planning stages of the Donor Wall, a permanent fixture in the newly expanded Nicola Valley Health Care Centre. Donate in memory of your loved ones, they'd love to recognize you with a permanent plaque on the Donor Wall.

A small, but very appreciative audience enjoyed Silk Road at Brambles on Tuesday evening. The third concert in the Home Routes series, organized by Sarah Desrosiers and a dedicated group of volunteers, the duo, Qiu Xia He and Andre Thibault, treated us to Chinese folk and classical music blended with Celtic, French, Latin, Arabic, blues, and flamenco. Really! Their performance was educational and fun, with Andre playing a wide variety of interesting historical instruments, while Qiu Xia He dazzled us with her virtuosity. Who knew the pipa could be played so masterfully in so many genres?

Once again, the Valley was so fortunate to be treated to world-class, award-winning, live music. I feel sorry for those who missed it. Kick back and check out Silk Road and some of their symphony collaboration and other videos at: silkroadmusic.ca/category/performance. Dazzling! —jdv
