Search for Nicola Ranch manager continues today

More search crews are expected to arrive at first light today, to continue the search for a third day, for 32-year-old Nicola Ranch manager Ben Tyner, missing on Swakum Mountain.

Longtime tracker & hunting guide Kim Robinson 'walked up the mountain' when he heard. He found the saddled horse early Monday morning, and finally caught it after 20 minutes. He tied it to a tree & went back to call his cowboys friends to identify it.

But by then, Kim says that police were keeping civilians out of the area, including he & cowboys familiar with the terrain, who wanted to help search.

Since then, Search and Rescue has accepted assistance from ranchers on horseback, Aspen Planers staff, Lower Nicola Indian Band and had 4 trained search dogs on scene with a helicopter and snowmobiles; as well as SAR teams from Kamloops, Shuswap, Central Okanagan, Penticton, Princeton, Logan Lake, Chilliwack and Surrey.

But Kim doesn't think it's right that those experienced with that particular back-country weren't allowed to participate early on, when they might have had a better chance of finding Ben.

Thinking Outside the Box The Antichrist

The popular translations of the antichrist commonly point to a person with power. Many American Presidents, many Popes, many conquerors were labelled the antichrist. However, as written in the New Testament, the popular depictions are inaccurate.

The New Testament does speak of the antichrist but the New Testament doesn't point to a person with power. Instead, the antichrist is considered anyone who doesn't believe in the Christ or pretends to be a Christ.

"For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist." — (2 John 1:7)

"And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that [spirit] of antichrist, whereby ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world." — (1 John 4:3)

"Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time." — (1 John 2:18)

Now, why were certain powerful people targeted as the antichrist? It's simple. It's a tactic used by influential people to assassinate the character of other powerful people and to prevent the common person from siding with their ideas. Moreover, many Christian denominations constantly preach that the end-of-days has cometh. The appearance of the antichrist is an indication of this end. To validate their end-of-days propaganda, some denominations invent associations.

Be vigilant by fellow God seeker, for we live in the age of Darkness, and too often, conclusions that defy reason are perpetuated as accurate. —Mike Bhangu

New Best Friend Mark was passing by the bar on the way home from work when he sees his good friend Tom gulping down one shot after another. Fearing the worst, Mark charged into the bar and confronted Tom. "Tom what's going on?" Mark asked. "It's my wife Beckie," Tom replied. "She ran off with my best friend!" "Hey wait a second!" said Mark. "Aren't I your best friend?" "Not any more," Tom said with a happy smile. "He is!"

Handlen gets 'life'

Monday, a judge sentenced Gary Handlen to life in prison for killing 12-year-old Monica Jack in 1978, but moments later dismissed a case involving allegations the man murdered another BC girl three years earlier.

BC Supreme Court Justice Austin Cullen called Handlen a sexual predator who preys on the vulnerable and weak to commit barbaric crimes and has already been convicted for other sexual assaults.

A conviction of first-degree murder carries an automatic life sentence of 25 years without parole, although Handlen is eligible to apply for parole in 15 years through the so-called faint hope clause.
