Surveillance images captured in Merritt

RCMP across multiple jurisdictions in the BC Southern Interior are sharing information with one another as investigators continue their efforts to both locate a suspect vehicle and advance their investigations into multiple crimes.

On November 6, shortly after 8pm, Merritt RCMP officers responded to a fraud in progress at a gas station on Airport Road. Police were told that an unknown male suspect was allegedly inside the store attempting to pass counterfeit US and Canadian currency.

The suspect was associated with a burgundy Dodge Ram D-150 pickup which contained multiple occupants as it fled from the business. The suspect allegedly accelerated towards the responding officer, and sideswiped his fully marked police vehicle before fleeing the area east-bound, not pursued by police.

The same truck & suspect are wanted for counterfeit & miscellaneous offences in Kelowna, West Kelowna, Merritt, Kamloops City, and Armstrong Nov 4-6.

If you can identify the suspect shown in the attached images captured by video surveillance, or you have any information about any of these crimes, please contact your local police or remain completely anonymous by calling Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.

Grants in lieu

The City of Merritt will receive $31,863 from the provincial govt, our share of this year's $16 million in grants in lieu of property taxes, shared by 54 municipalities.

Each November, the Province pays grants in lieu of property taxes to municipalities and regional districts for services they provide in their communities, such as parks, sewers, roads and fire protection. The grants are for properties owned by the provincial government, such as office buildings, warehouses and court-houses. Municipalities use these grants to fund and maintain priority public services and local infrastructure projects.

The Province is exempt from paying taxes to municipal governments under the federal Constitution Act. However, starting in 1963, the Government of B.C. recognized its responsibility to compensate municipalities for local services that benefit provincially owned properties.

year's light-up parade are available from Carrie Ware & Co., 1964 Quilchena Ave. or reception@carrieware.ca Deadline to enter is Monday November 25.

Winter dancing Dance washes from the soul the dust of every day life. Winter session at Love To Dance Academy starts week of Dec 9.

Kids classes (from age 2yrs): Ballet, Spanish Flamenco, Jazz, Dance Gymnastics, Tap. Adults classes: Latin Line, Silver Swans Ballet for over 55, Bollywood, Tap. Register now for dance in Winter. Phone (250) 936-9011 or email: ltdadance@gmail.com or visit studio: 1976 Quilchena Avenue, Merritt.

More Thoughts du Jour

This is as bad as it can get, but don't bet on it.
If you can smile when things go wrong, you have someone in mind to blame.
There is no substitute for genuine lack of preparation.
The facts, although interesting, are irrelevant.
The world gets a little better every day and worse in the evening.
Someone who thinks logically is a nice contrast to the real world.
One seventh of your life is spent on Monday.

Home based business market & craft fair

Tomorrow, the Home Based Business & Craft Fair will open again, 10am-4pm at the Civic Centre. This event has become a favourite over the past few years. It's a chance to start your Christmas shopping early, with over 30 vendors: skin care, photography, glassware, knitwear, health, gift ideas & more. There is also reflexology treatments available, and goodies from Kekuli. Free admission, donations for the Food Bank graciously accepted. FMI contact Ellen (250) 315-1012.

Elvis tonight!

Don't miss one of our favourite Elvises — Jeff Bodner — this evening at the Merritt Legion. The event is a fundraiser for BC Wounded Warriors/First Responders Foundation. It's a great event as a follow-up to Remembrance Day.

BCWWFRF is a non-profit organization that focuses on the mental well-being of any and all soldiers, police officers, paramedics, fire fighters, nurses, border guards, prison guards, sheriffs and other first responders who have had tragedy and trauma thrust upon them as a result of their chosen occupation. Advance tickets $25 by calling 250-300-0291, at the door $30, show 7:30pm.

Community

Jeff Bloom author talk & reading at the Merritt Library
