Gordon Cockle

April 11, 1940 - January 8, 2020

It is a sad endeavour to announce the passing of Gordon Cockle, aka Mirror Guy, Merritt Morning Mirror/Market innovator and founder.

Gord's wit, community wisdom & superhero Mirror Guy persona came into its own after, having honed his journalism skills at the newspaper, he launched his own coffeeshop-type paper, the Merritt Morning Mirror, or as he sometimes referred to it: the Spiegel.

On April Fools Day 1995, Gord took this town by storm, and built up an insatiable appetite for his literary oeuvre — the ordinarily humdrum tales of this town in his inimitable prose, which everyone embraced & revelled in! He pushed the whole thing fa-a-a-a beyond the franchised coffeeshop papers' jokes & puzzles, and the Mirror's reputation endures to this day, firmly embedded in the psyche of this community (for which I am grateful)!

Though Gord called it a 'paper shopping mall', it was also a blog before blogs knew they were a thing — he was at the forefront of that transition between the power of the establishment & the power of the people.

That was Gord's public persona. In private, he had an inquiring, thoughtful and brilliant mind... steeped in a Winnipeg-Irish bad-boy sensibility. He was interested in literature, politics, art, poetry, pop culture, sports & cooking. Intellectually, Gord was a 'generalist', interested in EVERYthing. As a cook, he was a 'perfectionist' especially when it came to lemon meringue pie.

To Gord's family, my sincerest condolences for your loss, and though it is 20 years since he left 'public life', his loss is still keenly felt by those of us who followed his antics & loved him for them.

So, carrying on... and as Gord would say: "Have some fun, do some good."

In memory

Patricia Brkich

April 1939-January 2019

We miss you always, never forgotten.

From your family

Congratulations

... to Mitch and Florence Wilkinson, who split a prize in the Maxmillions draw on Jan. 3rd, for a win of $500,000!

Candlelight vigil for Kelly Fraser

A candlelit vigil has been organized for 26-year old Inuk singer Kelly Fraser, set for today, 6pm at Spirit Square. Kelly was a Juno Award nominee in 2018, an advocate for Inuit culture, language and traditions; and attended NVIT here in Merritt. According to her family, Kelly suffered PTSD from childhood trauma and persistent cyberbullying. She took her life on Christmas Eve in Winnipeg. Please bring your drums, music makers & candles. Dress warm & travel safe.

January is Crime Stoppers month

Are you concerned about crime in our community? Do you have information but are worried about becoming involved in the file yourself? Did you know that Crime Stoppers is the only way you can provide information to the police without having to provide your name? If you have information that would help the police in Merritt please call Crime Stoppers. When you call 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS) you are talking to an operator in another province who takes your tip and then forwards that to the appropriate agency. They will not ask your name, they will not see your phone number, they only want to know your information. You can remain anonymous but the criminals won't.

'SELDOM SCENE' exhibit in Brambles — on now! Photographer Angelina Brooymans takes us along to those special places that are only experienced by leaving the beaten path. Angelina's winter exhibition transports us along to find the places 'seldom seen' only because it takes a lot of work to get to them...Bring your soup through the secret door, curl up on the comfy couch and enjoy the work of this inspired artist. All work available for sale as well as artcards. An artist 'meet and greet' with Angelina will be arranged for January to talk about inspiration and technique or just to have a coffee with like-minded art-loving folks.

Work Crew Problems Two new work crews were putting in telephone poles. At the end of the day the foreman asked the first crew how many poles they had done. "Twelve," was the reply. Then he asked the second crew and they said, "two." "Two?" shouted the foreman. "The others did twelve!" "Yeah," answered the leader of the second crew, "but you should see how much they left sticking out of the ground."

Spell Straight Little Johnny's teacher was preparing the students for the upcoming Spelling Bee when she asked Johnny to "Spell Straight." Little Johnny: "S-T-R-A-I-G-H-T." Teacher: "Correct; what does it mean?" Little Johnny: "Without ginger ale."
