Chinese New Year Welcome to the Year of the Rat

Tomorrow, January 25, over 1.6 billion people of Asian descent across the globe will celebrate the first day of the Chinese New Year, the Year of the Rat.

Lunar New Year is a time of travel, and it has been dubbed the largest 'annual human migration' in the world — 2.5 billion trips in a 20-day period in 2017.

Major Chinese cities, including Beijing and quarantine-blocked Wuhan, banned all large gatherings over the coming Lunar New Year festival, in an expanding effort to contain a rapidly spreading coronavirus outbreak.

Authorities also expanded travel restrictions imposed on Wuhan to surrounding municipalities, shutting down travel networks and attempting to quarantine about 25 million people.

Here in Canada, many people will be concerned about family & friends back in China. Many countries, including Canada, have begun screening travellers from China for symptoms of the virus, which can cause fever, coughing, trouble breathing and pneumonia.

Family Literacy Week - Jan. 25-31

Different kinds of literacy

The 2020 Interior Savings Unplug and Play Family Literacy Week runs January 26th to 31st and encourages families to unplug from their screens and spend time together.

Head to the Merritt Library on Wed Jan 29 for Story-time 10-10:30am, for the little ones, and after school the older ones can check out the NEW physical literacy activities 3:30-4:30pm. Library staff will show participants how to use the new Physical Literacy Kits, now available for borrowing. Each includes books, supplies & ideas for related activities to get readers moving! "We are pleased to showcase our new physical literacy kits at our event this Family Literacy Week. The program encourages the development of movement, skills, improvisation and creativity for children and children at heart. We will read a book and take part in fun activities based on the story," said Megan Gregory, Librarian, Merritt Library.

On Thurs, Jan 30 the Arts Council will host 2 free Art Literacy hands-on creative events at the Art Gallery; 3-5pm ages K-pre-teen and 7-9pm for teens & adults. "Art and literacy go hand in hand. We'll be doing collage, printmaking and paper bag books. We're looking forward to having you join us," said Mischelle Pearce, President, NV Community Arts Council.

Law Enforcement Charity Hockey Challenge

Members of the Merritt RCMP are again hosting a Fundraising Event in support of the BC Children's Hospital Foundation, our 8th year hosting. The event had steadily grown in popularity and they are up from 5 teams to 14 teams this year! The tournament runs Fri Feb. 21-Sun Feb 23 at the Nicola Valley Memorial Arena. Their goal this year is to break the $25,000.00 donation mark! If anyone would like to contribute to support the fundraising efforts, contact fundraising coordinator Vida Ferris 378-8685 or vferris@hotmail.ca

Getting Nicked The clergyman of a large church, having just arrived in town, was being shaved by a local barber who enjoyed occasional drinking sprees. There was an unmistakable odor of whisky around the barber and the razor suddenly nicked the man's face. "You see, that comes from taking too much drink," said the clergyman. "You're right," said the barber. "Drinking does make the skin tender, that's a fact."
