Hog fuel re-ignites

The hog fuel pile at Merritt Green Energy ignited again Wednesday evening, around 8pm. 23 Merritt firefighters were on scene until approx. 11pm.

The first spontaneous combustion occurred on Aug. 12 — and this 2nd fire begs the questions: what's been/being done to eliminate the risk, and how could the pile have been allowed to get so big in the first place, given the inherent danger... ??

Okanagan Trips & Trails

Local author and photographer, Murphy Shewchuk's latest book is available at Save-On-Foods in Merritt.

Co-authored with Judie Steeves of Kelowna, Okanagan Trips & Trails covers a wide variety of backroads and trails from Manning Park to Three Valley Gap. At over 500 pages, this is the 4th edition of a book that has sold 10,000 copies. With over 230 colour photos & 56 maps, it is the first edition to be printed in full colour.

Okanagan Trips & Trails was released in December 2019, a year after his Kootenay Trips & Trails, also a full colour edition. Both books, plus Cariboo Trips & Trails, are also available at Chapters Indigo.

Murphy has been writing and taking photographs since the 1960s. In addition to 16 books, he has had over 400 magazine articles & thousands of photos published.

After over 45 years, he recently retired from producing backroads articles for BC Outdoors magazine. He has also served on the board of the NVMuseum & Archives since its formation in 1976.

Market Goes Garlic

With the cancellation of the Lower Nicola Garlic Festival, the NV Farmer's Market has coordinated with the Chamber of Commerce to hold a special The Market Goes Garlic event Sept. 12 & 13, 9:30am-4pm, downtown — a street market of local vendors, producers & more.

Interested Chamber of Commerce members will be able to participate as a vendor! With over 20 vendors, non-profits, and other organizations already confirmed to be participating, this stands to be the largest event, aside from the Farmer's Market. FMI contact the Chamber.
