MERRITT MORNING MARKET

MIDWEEK EDITION - NOVEMBER 20, 2020 #3496

News, opinion, community events since 1996! Box 2199, Merritt, BC V1K 1B8

Tel: (250) 378-5717 Fax: (250) 378-2025 Email: market@uniserve.com

New health orders as BC's total COVID-19 cases near 25,000 since start of pandemic

To support comprehensive workplace COVID-19 safety plans, active inspections will be increased across the province. Businesses that do not comply will be subject to fines and /or ordered to close. Environmental health officers will focus for now on workplaces in the Vancouver Coastal and Fraser Health regions to ensure full compliance and enable rapid response and action.

Social gatherings

All indoor or outdoor events are prohibited, incl. religious, cultural or community events, with exception of baptisms, funerals and weddings (up to 10 people incl. officiant if a COVID-19 safety plan is in place - no receptions).

No social gatherings at residences with anyone other than those who reside there. People who live alone must host no gatherings, but can continue to see 1 or 2 of the same members of their core pandemic bubble at home.

Group physical activities

Businesses, recreation centres or other venues that organize or operate indoor group spin classes, hot yoga and high-intensity interval training will stop for the fall and winter.

Sports activities can continue, but there is to be no travel outside of communities for games or competitions, and no spectators are allowed. League organizers should continue planning for 2021 with today's modifications in mind.

Workplace safety

All businesses & worksites must conduct active daily screening of all on-site workers using their COVID-19 safety plans.

Workers and customers must wear masks in indoor public and retail spaces (except when eating or drinking), and in workplace common areas, including elevators, hallways, group or break rooms, kitchens and customer counters.

Office-based employers should support work-from-home options wherever possible.

Travel All non-essential travel outside of one's community is strongly discouraged. People travelling to stay with immediate family members should ensure they do not host or participate in any social gatherings.

Another snowfall warning for the Coq

Snowfall with total amounts of 15-25 cm is expected. A moist and unstable air-mass gave flurries heavy at times near the summit of Coquihalla - Hope to Merritt last night. The flurries were expected to continue through today with total snow accumulations up to 25 cm possible near the summit by this evening.

Rapidly accumulating snow could make travel difficult over some locations. Visibility may be suddenly reduced at times in heavy snow.

[Editor: Perhaps with all non-essential travel frowned-upon, there won't be people stranded on a closed Coq!]

Big arts weekend

at the new NV Community Arts Centre

The 5th Winter Artisan Show and Sale, with over 30 artists and artisans, start today until Dec 24th. New hours at the Arts Centre are Wed-Sat 11am-6pm, Sun 12-4pm. 2051 Voght St., in the same building as Kekuli.

An official Grand Opening of the new NVCAC Arts Centre will be held today, 2-9pm, with the new increased Covid protocols, masks are now mandatory in all public & retail spaces.

A special winter weekend shopping experience will also take place: Merritt Creative Community Art Crawl! Nov 20-22. Shop local! Handmade gifts at all the participating businesses.

Pick up an Arts Crawl map to shop locally at stores that carry local hand crafted items and gifts. Collect stamps from all the stores on the map. Then drop off your completed map at the Gallery and Gift Shop by Sunday, Nov 22. You will be entered in a draw to win a $40-$60 Gift Card from one of the stores on the map. Stores will be open late on Friday and open on Saturday. Creative Co. and the Gallery/Gift Shop are open on Sunday. Get out and have some fun! Covid protocols apply, wear a mask, social distance & prepare to wait if a shop is busy.

Golden Years Two elderly women were out driving in a large car — both could barely see over the dashboard. As they were cruising along they came to an intersection. The spotlight was red but they just went on through. The woman in the passenger seat thought to herself, "I must be losing it, I could have sworn we just went through a red light." A few minutes later they came to another intersection and the light was red again. And again they went right through. The woman in the passenger seat was now getting nervous. At the next intersection after they went through again, she turned to the other woman and said, "Mildred, did you know we just ran through 3 red lights in a row!!! You could have killed us." Mildred turned to her and said, "Oh my! Am I driving?"
