2021 property assessments

In the next few days, property owners will receive their 2021 assessment notices from BC Assessment, which reflect market value as of July 1, 2020.

Merritt will see "somewhat higher increases" in values than most of the rest of the Thompson Okanagan: a 12% increase, as compared to 0%-10% increase. Meaning that a house in Merritt valued last year at $289,000 will rise to $323,000. Logan Lake will see increases up to 15%.

Open Letter, City of Merritt (abridged) On snow clearing in the City of Merritt

Dear Citizens of Merritt,
We didn't meet your expectations for snow clearing during the Christmas and New Years season. As the Chief Administrative Officer for the City of Merritt, I want to personally express that we can and will do better.

On December 21, 2020, our City saw 44cm of snow fall in a 14-hour period. We threw every internal resource we had at the snowfall, but it was not enough. Despite the best efforts of our public works team, snow accumulated faster than we could manage. As a result, layers of compact snow started to build up on side streets. City maintained sidewalks were not cleared as quickly as they ordinarily would be. These issues were compounded as 12 more centimeters of snow fell over the course of the next week.

We fell behind and never caught up. We were not well enough prepared for the snow volumes that we saw and that resulted in poor sideroad and sidewalk conditions. These conditions had negative impacts on the City as a whole, but especially on seniors and those with mobility restrictions. For all of this, I am sorry.

The situation: The City of Merritt has designed its snow clearing program around the specific climatic conditions that we tend to experience in the Nicola Valley.

During the period of 1981-2010 (the most recent period for which Environment Canada has publicly available data), Merritt saw an average annual snowfall of 66.7cm (26.25 inches). During that period, the average snow depth for November was 1cm, December 5cm, January 5cm and February 2cm, with all other months at 0cm. This indicates is that even though we get an average of 66.7cm of snow over the course of a year, it tends to melt, such that we do not generally see significant snow accumulation.

Our approach to snow clearing differs from communities that receive more snowfall and where snow stays around until March. In those communities, more service is provided and different tactics are used, such as plowing to the middle of the road and removing snow, clearing of driveway windrows, and 24/7 service. Compared to these communities, the City of Merritt offers a lean and efficient snow clearing service.

Closing thoughts: City staff and Council genuinely appreciate feedback from residents and are always working to improve services and stay mindful of costs. We have heard valid and reasonable concerns from residents regarding laneways (back alleys), sideroads, parking areas, sidewalks, and support for seniors. We have learned from this snowstorm and will use that knowledge to provide better service in the future.

We also understand that many of you feel extremely frustrated about the state of roads and sidewalks in Merritt and how long it is taking to restore conditions.

Frustration is fine. Vilifying and bullying is not fine. Staff and Council have been cursed at, flipped off and been the subject of dozens of comments, both in-person and online, that are downright cruel. On multiple occasions, equipment operators have been stopped in the streets only to be yelled at. Nobody deserves this kind of treatment. These actions demoralize and hurt people that are trying their best to serve their community.

Hold us accountable for our response to one of the largest snowfalls that Merritt has seen in the past 40 years. Require us to put plans in place to ensure that the next time this happens, service is better. In doing that, be civil and kind.

Sean Smith, Chief Administrative Officer
ssmith@merritt.ca, 250-378-8613
