Métis Nation BC approves vote for self-government

During last week's Métis Nation British Columbia AGM, a resolution was passed that affirms the group as the official Métis govt of the self-governing Métis community in BC.

"This historic achievement is a tremendous step forward for our Nation and our citizens," said MNBC Acting President Lissa Smith. "It honours the evolution of Métis self-government structures in Canada over the past 300 years and affirms the rights of Métis people as declared in Canada's Constitution Act, 1982, the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, the Canada-Métis Nation Accord, and B.C. Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act. An exciting new chapter in our history has begun!"

The passing of this resolution authorizes the MNBC Board of Directors to enter into negotiations with the governments of Canada & BC to develop and sign inter-governmental agreements setting out the fiscal arrangements, including other transitional requirements to support the Métis community in BC as it exercises its inherent rights, authorities and jurisdictions, and as it maintains, strengthens, and develops its distinct political, legal, economic, social and cultural institutions of self-government.

Métis Nation BC represents nearly 90,000 self-identified Métis people in BC, approximately 1/3 of the Indigenous population in BC. FMI: www.mnbc.ca

Diamond Birthday Gift Alex to his friend Francis: "Yesterday was my wife's birthday, and I asked her, 'What gift would you like to have?'" Francis: "What did she say?" Alex: "She said, 'Give me anything which has diamonds in it.'" Francis: "So what did you give her?" Alex: "A deck of playing cards."

Will She Say Yes? An extremely wealthy 65-year-old man falls in love with a young woman in her twenties and is contemplating a proposal. "Do you think she'd marry me if I tell her I'm 45?" he asked a friend. "Your chances are better," said the friend, "if you tell her you're 90."

Still wintry on the Coq. A travel advisory was in effect between Coquihalla Lakes Rd & 15km north of Hope last evening, with limited visibility, blowing snow & dense fog. 35cm of snow accumulated yesterday, bringing the 'depth of snow on the ground' to more than 271cm. Avalanche control activity is planned between Zopkios Brake Check & Falls Lake Rd today, Fri Feb 26. Expect 1-2 hour delays throughout the day.

Letter to the editor Free Willy

A number of years ago we placed sticky letters on the back door "Free Willy". The letters are still there, unfortunately Willy is not.

It has been 99 days of torment for myself and the rest of the family, and as I go over his paperwork left behind, I struggle to come to grips with the years of torment he endured within the system.

Today, Feb. 26, 2021 was to be Willy's last day. The last day that he would have to bow down and worship those that have control. Feb. 26, 2021 was to be the first day of his new life, under his own control.

To this day we don't know exactly what happened and the wound left behind continues to grow. I know of the failures of the system, but there is no acceptance of these failures.

Rest in peace, Willy. Rest in peace.
— Doug Mikalishen, Willy's uncle
