Plum fruit leather

7 lb plums, around 5 quarts bowl

3/4 cup granulated sugar

Preheat oven to 400° F. Wash, halve & pit the plums. Lay out on rimmed cookie sheets with cut side up and place in the oven for 20 min., checking every 5 min. to avoid burning. Remove from the oven and let cool. Using blade attachment in the food processor, blend plums until smooth and pour finished mixture into a large bowl.

Add 3/4 cup sugar and stir well. Add more sugar to taste if needed. Line rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper covering the walls of the baking sheet as well. Pour the purée in to about an 1/8" to 1/4" thickness.

Let dry in the oven for as long as it takes to form fruit leather, about 6-8 hours, more or less depending on the thickness of your fruit leather.

Drying: Heat the oven to low 140°F. Place the baking sheets with purée in the oven on the two racks, as much in the center as possible. OR if the lowest setting on the oven is 170°F, preheat to 170°, turn off and leave the door closed completely and reheat it after an hour; repeat as necessary until it dries out.

The fruit leather is ready when it is no longer sticky and has a smooth surface.

Vandalism at schools

The Merritt RCMP are seeking the public's assistance to identify the suspects who are vandalizing schools in Merritt.

On October 14, vandals broke windows at both Diamondville Elementary and Central Elementary. Both suspects were caught on surveillance wearing all black clothing, one wearing distinct black and white Nike running shoes.

On October 27, vandals spray painted the side of Diamondville Elementary using blue and yellow spray paint.

"We are seeking the public's assistance to identify the suspects responsible for these disgusting acts of vandalism", says Sgt. Josh Roda. "Our children deserve to feel safe in school and going to a building where windows are boarded up and obscene things are painted on it, is heart breaking."

If you have any information on who is responsible for these incidents or have any information you feel may be helpful to the investigations, please contact the Merritt RCMP at 250-378-4262.
