FOOD SERVICE OPPORTUNITY

The NICOLA VALLEY RODEO ASSOCIATION (NVRA) is seeking a catering and /or food service business to operate the food concession for the 2023 season at the Merritt rodeo grounds.

The concession holds a Food Premise permit and was renovated in 2019 with updated equipment and finishes. The successful applicant must be able to commit to provide services when required at all (currently 6 – 8) scheduled events for 2023, including the Labour Day Weekend Pro Rodeo and demonstrate an ability to provide a variety of menu items at reasonable prices. Attention to prompt service and compliance with health legislation is essential, including the requirements for a temporary food permit. <https://www.interiorhealth.ca/YourEnvironment/FoodSafety/Pages/Permits.aspx#temporary>

Expressions of interest must be received by the Nicola Valley Rodeo Association on or before March 31. Please direct your application or request for further information to nicolavalleyrodeoassociation@gmail.com.

Taking back our streets

The family of Miguel Mack & friends and supporters gathered yesterday afternoon for a march downtown — to be heard & seen about Miguel who has been missing nearly a month, and the wider tragedy & loss due to drugs and drug dealers.

Earlier in the day, the Southeast District Major Crime Unit & Merritt RCMP finally issued a statement confirming that "Mr. Mack's disappearance is being investigated as suspicious and involves criminality.

The investigation remains a priority, as evidenced by the large police presence in the community over the past several weeks. To protect the integrity of this active and ongoing investigation, no further details can be provided.

Anyone with information about the disappearance of Miguel Mack is asked to contact the SED MCU Tip Line at 1-877-987-8477."

Veronica Beers

October 19, 1925 - March 20, 2023

The family of Veronica Maria Beers announce the passing of their matriarch at the grand age of 97 years.

Veronica, known to most as Oma, is best known for her never ending love for children, and most everyone she knew in her life, as well as for her eternal optimism.

Veronica was born in Zwaag, Netherlands, the fourth child in a family of 13 children. She grew up in a farming family in rural Holland and lived through the great depression and World War II. In her teens, Veronica took a caregiving role with another family, where unfortunately she contracted Tuberculosis. She spent a year in a sanatorium during the war in German occupied Holland, and recalled hearing bombs drop in the distance. She lived in fear for her family and homeland.

Veronica married Nicolaas Beers in 1950, and she was proud to say she had 10 children but never had one, having started out with twins. While it was a busy schedule with a large family, mom was in heaven with children around. After having 8 children, mom reluctantly agreed to my father's dream to immigrate to Canada, where her last two children were born. We resided in Oyama for two years. Merritt was entering a boom with the opening of Craigmont mines so after we had a house fire in Oyama, Nic moved the family to Merritt.

Veronica was involved with the Catholic Church being a long time member of the Catholic Women's League. She loved being involved in community through her children's school and extracurricular involvements. She welcomed everyone into her home and became known as Oma to most of the town's younger generations.

Veronica always maintained her optimistic outlook, believing things would always turn out ok in the end when going through challenges she faced in her life. She was always grateful for the simple actions, for thempeople in her life and the experiences she lived.

Veronica is survived by her children: Afra (Ole), John (Angela), Yvonne, Nic (Patty), Mary (Jim), Eddy (Jody), Teresa (Steve), Bernadette (George); her grandchildren: Kevin, Ryan, Rosalind, Amanda, Emily, Bert, Simon, Jeffrey, Dylan, Tayo, Luke, Sarah, Ana, Jacob, Matthew, Ian, Eric, Ben, Cameron, Keaton, Abby and their spouses: and great grandchildren, Nicolas, Hannah, Jonathan.

I drove my friends to the pub without a license. I don't know how they're still open.
A reporter asks a 104-year-old woman, "What is the best thing about being 104?"
She replies, "No peer pressure."
