Flood-hazard mapping

The Ministry of Emergency Management and Climate Readiness and the Ministry of Forests are investing $8.69 million for flood-hazard mapping by March 2024. This will be a new tool that will help people living in communities on the front lines of extreme flooding, to better prepare for floods. This investment also leverages $4.33 million in a federal funding commitment through the Flood Hazard Identification and Mapping Program with Natural Resources Canada.

The first 5 flood-hazard mapping areas, which include approx. 70 communities, are: the Fraser & Nechako rivers in the Prince George area; the Bulkley & Skeena rivers Houston to downstream of Terrace; Shuswap Lake & the mainstem rivers that drain into it; the Nicola & Coldwater rivers; and the Coquihalla & Fraser rivers Yale to Mission.

Flood-plain mapping provides a detailed understanding of potential flooding, informing a variety of projects that can help reduce the impacts of flooding, as well as supporting local decisions by First Nations and local governments to establish appropriate zoning and flood construction levels.

"Coming out of the 2021 flood, the City of Merritt has worked with communities up and down the Coldwater and Nicola rivers to create plans that reduce flood risk and support river restoration," said Sean Smith, CAO, City of Merritt. "In this process, we have seen an absolute need for holistic, regional watershed planning that isn't limited by jurisdictional boundaries. Good decisions come from good data, and with a more consistent, regional approach to the flood-hazard mapping process, the public and decision makers will have more accurate data." The wealthy socialite Mrs. Smythe was making final arrangements for an elaborate reception. "Nora," she said to her veteran servant, "for the first half-hour I want you to stand at the drawing-room door and call the guests' names as they arrive." Nora's face lit up. "Thank you, ma'am," she replied. "I've been wanting to do that to some of your friends for the last 20 years."

A young boy arrives at the doctor crying. "Doctor, doctor, wherever I touch myself, it hurts." "Show me what you mean," says the doctor. The boy touches his chest, and says "that really hurts." He touches his knee, "that really hurts." He touches another twelve places, and every time it really hurts. "What's wrong with me doctor?" he asks, "how come I hurt all over?" "I know what's wrong with you," says the doctor. "You've broken your finger!"

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

 Aries March 21 - April 19 You've got to realize what's holding you back and deal with it. Once you've lessened the weight you're carrying, you'll shift, with ease and speed, towards your goal.	 Taurus April 20 - May 20 Unless you don't care how things work out this week, take control and get busy. You know what you want. And, if you do your best, you can take strides towards getting it.	 Gemini May 21 - June 20 You might investigating all possible eventualities before making a decision. But, try following your feelings. They will show you what you need to understand. Then it's action time!	 Cancer June 21 - July 22 You're being told that something difficult is attainable. But there's time, planning & effort involved. Be realistic, don't commit to building anything unless you're sure it's worth your investment.
 Leo July 23 - Aug 22 You've set the bar high. You should be encouraged. You're making good headway along a challenging road. It's not going to be easy, but it's possible. Have faith in yourself.	 Virgo Aug 23 - Sept 22 You're dealing with an intense conundrum. Will the tension resolve itself soon? Yes, with each passing day, you're moving further away from a time of struggle.	 Libra Sept 23 - Oct 22 You consider yourself to be a peacemaker, but you enjoy the occasional heated 'discussion'. This week, try not to miss a chance to heal a longstanding source of disagreement.	 Scorpio Oct 23 - Nov 21 When an opportunity appears, you need to act, or risk missing it. Be bold this week. When you see a chance, take it. If you hesitate, you might regret it.
 Sagittarius Nov 22 - Dec 21 You're absolutely right. Yet sometimes, it's necessary to stand back, and let someone make their own mistakes. Be patient this week. Someone will (eventually) be grateful.	 Capricorn Dec 22 - Jan 19 If you find yourself feeling irritated this week, channel it in a productive way. You'll find you can create a constructive plan of action out of a source of discomfort.	 Aquarius Jan 20 - Feb 18 This week the cosmos provides you with a state-of-the-art celestial satnav. There's a different, more efficient way to proceed that will save time and energy.	 Pisces Feb 19 - Mar 20 We can get advice, but we learn through experience. This week, if you find yourself facing something you think you can't do, know that you can. And very successfully.
