Watering restrictions upgraded to Level 3

Yesterday, the City of Merritt upgraded to level 3 watering restrictions — based on Province's Drought Information Portal.

While the City says its 3 aquifers currently have ample water, the challenge comes with protecting fish habitat, particularly in the Coldwater River.

Level 3 watering restrictions limit watering to 2 days a week, instead of 3 days during level 2 restrictions. Hand watering and washing are still permitted.

Even numbered addresses can sprinkler on Wed & Fri; odd numbered addresses can sprinkler on Tues & Sat, 6-8am or 7-9pm. Automatic Irrigation must be set for midnight-2am.

Hand watering plants, washing vehicles, or power washing with a user-controlled flow nozzle with shut-off valve is permitted at anytime during level 3 watering restrictions. They recommend washing vehicles over grass or gravel when possible so that run-off water drains into the earth instead of down the drains.

At this time, residents may only top up swimming pools, spas, or ponds.

Bass Coast is the BC festival that's still thriving straight.com

The local music festival industry is not doing well.

In the past four months, several stalwarts on the calendar have shuttered. Constellation Festival—a promising upstart on the scene—has said its 2023 offering is “next-to-impossible to launch.” FVDED in the Park called the whole thing off. Folk Fest, which held court in Jericho Beach Park for more than 40 years, was “indefinitely cancelled” earlier this year, before clawing its way back.

COVID, organizers say, buried the industry... But despite all that, Bass Coast festival is thriving.

Nestled in Merritt's Nicola Valley between a bend of the Coldwater River, the 15-year-old boutique electronic music event attracts 6,500 people each year to the inland desert to—as artist Gove Kidao puts it—“get silly to quite serious music.” Each of the four stages are designed with elaborate constructions, indiscriminately housing local and international performers. Giant installations, intimate panel discussions, and movement sessions are planned with meticulous attention to detail. Despite running in July, this year's festival has been long sold out.

Not just a one-and-done summer rave like many other local festivals, Bass Coast has spent more than a decade running mini-events throughout the year to showcase local artists and offer a rallying point for bass music fans. Even during COVID, [the co-founders] organized live-streamed sets for long-time enthusiasts. The July festival might be the jewel of the events calendar, but the real Bass Coast... is its creative community...

Two spot fires pop up near Nicola Lake

Yesterday, 2 wildfires sparked on Highway 5A. BC Wildfire was on scene of both blazes. The first started at about 12:30pm in the Cultus Creek area off the highway. The 2nd ignited later at 2pm near Beaver Ranch Flats. Both fires are suspected human-caused.

Neither fire remains on the wildfire map: wildfiresituation.nrs.gov.bc.ca/map.

Generations Daughter: Alexa, play Let It Go. Dad: When I was your age, I had to call a radio station, wait on hold for 30 minutes to request a song, then sit by my boom box for an hour for my song to play with a blank cassette tape so I could record it. Daughter: I don't understand any of that.

They tell me I'm not very good at math. I mean, about half the time I understand what they're talking about, the other half the time I think I understand what they're talking about and the other half the time, I'll never understand what they're talking about.
