Provincial wildfire update

Since April 1, 2023, 1,754 wildfires have burned about 1.58 million hectares of land in BC. There are currently 397 active fires burning across the province.

Cooler weather and precipitation continued to dampen fire activity in many regions of the province this week.

The prevailing pattern is expected to end this weekend when an offshore ridge will build towards the coast bringing higher temperatures to the Interior and coastal regions.

Merritt Fire Rescue crew heads to Ross Moore Lake fire

A bit more than a week after the hog-fuel fire on the old Tolko site — which drew huge firefighting support from neighbouring communities — Merritt Fire Rescue is returning the favour.

A crew was sent earlier this week to the Adams Complex fire near Ross More Lake, to help with fire suppression.

Way-ta-go, Merritt Fire Rescue!

Rodeo parade makes a comeback

The plan is to revive the rodeo parade, in the model of the Country Christmas parade! The most obvious change from the traditional rodeo parades of old is that it will be held in the evening, kicking off the Rodeo/Fall Fair long weekend on Friday evening, September 1, at 6:30pm. This offers a new opportunity for lights on floats, bikes, animals, etc.

Organizer Jacqueline Whitecross is looking for parade entries & volunteers to help make a great comeback. To get involved, contact her at 250-936-8585.

Community Death Café

Merritt Hospice is hosting a Death Café on August 17 at 6pm at the Hospice office in the hospital. Come for tea & caake, discuss end of life issues. FMI call 250-280-1701.

NV Fall Fair

Still lots of time to get your submissions organized to enter into the Nicola Valley Fall Fair. The entries catalog outlining all the categories is available from the Merritt Herald & extra forms are available at Black's & Pharmasave. Entry forms can be dropped off there, too, before 5pm Wed. Emergency communication & evacuation funding

Among the 19 communities with emergency-evacuation-route plans &/or public-notification plans that will be funded by the Province, are two local projects: Nooaitch Indian Band's emergency communication & evacuation route plan (receiving $25,000); and TNRD's evacuation route review (receiving $27,625).

More than $880,000 is being provided through the Community Emergency Preparedness Fund (CEPF) to communities to develop and update such plans.

In February, the Province provided $180 million to CEPF, bringing the total provincial investment in the program to $369 million since its establishment in 2017. The CEPF is administered by the Union of British Columbia Municipalities (UBCM) on behalf of the Province.

My Uber driver really cares about my mental health. Just this morning I got a message from him saying: "I'm here for you."

Judge: "Lady, you shoplifted a can of tomatoes, so I sentence you to four weeks in prison, one for each tomato." Lady's husband: "Your honor, don't forget she also stole a can of peas."

A man went to the Police Station wishing to speak with the burglar who had broken into his house the night before. "You'll get your chance in court." said the Desk Sergeant. "No, no no!" said the man. "I want to know how he got into the house without waking my wife. I've been trying to do that for years!"
