Fatal collision on the Coq, Monday

Merritt RCMP are asking anyone who witnessed the collision on January 8 on the Coquihalla Hwy approx. 45km south of town, or who has dash camera footage and has not yet spoken to police, to contact them.

On Monday, police were alerted to a collision near Larson Hill. A Ford F150 travelling southbound, crossed the center median ditch and went into on coming traffic. The vehicle struck a semi truck and trailer heading northbound in the slow lane. The incident occurred prior to the start of the snow.

The driver of the F150 was declared deceased at the scene and the passenger was airlifted to hospital. The driver of the semi truck sustained minor injuries.

The driver has been identified as a New Westminster father who had been driving his son home from a U15A1 hockey tournament in Kelowna, when the crash occurred.

A post on the Coquihalla Road Reports (And Area) fb page said: "My 57 year old father and 14 year old brother were in the crash on Larson Hill. My father took the impact on the driver's side to save my brother's life and did not survive. My brother was airlifted to hospital but seems ok."

The incident caused a highway closure and long delays for travellers.

"We are still investigating the exact cause of the collision. Our hearts go out to the family of the deceased", says S/ Sgt. Josh Roda. "We want to remind the public to slow down and drive to the conditions this winter. The conditions on the Coquihalla Highway can change quickly." Anyone with any info is asked to contact them at 250-378-4262.

Old Merritt cookbook available online

An old community cookbook, Merritt B.C. Personal Recipes by the Catholic Women's League, has come to light, residing on the Arca website, an archive & digital repository of 1000s of pieces of BC literature.

The cookbook is not exactly dated, but from the 1950s, back when Overwaitea's phone number was 107.

Some of the recipes might seem odd for these days: "Baked Fillet with Cream", "Miracle Doughnuts", "Sour Cream Pie", "Mounted Police Salad". But many are old favourites.

The Merritt cookbook is from a collection of similar community cookbooks from Wellington, Riondel, Fanny Bay, Port Alberni, BC and Regina, SK, owned by the University of the Fraser Valley.

Check it out at: arcabc.ca/ and search Merritt B.C. Personal Recipes

New Extreme Weather Response Shelter

Last week, BC Housing, in association with the ASK Wellness Society and the Nicola Valley Shelter and Support Society, distributed a letter to neighbours about the new Extreme Weather Response Shelter located at 1755 Coldwater Ave, the Cadet Hall.

It will operate between January 7 & March 31, 2024, from 6pm-10am when an EWR alert is issued for Merritt, when temperatures (sustained or feels like) at or below -7°C and/or snowstorm accumulating more than 5cm (these conditions are subject to change on direction from the Medical Health Officer).

ASK Wellness Society (ASK) and the Nicola Valley Shelter and Support Society (NVSSS) will partner together to operate the shelter and provide guests with individual sleeping mats, a warm meal, transportation to and from the shelter, with multiple staff on-site.

According to the 2023 Point-in-Time Homeless Count, 67 people are experiencing homelessness in Merritt, compared to 43 in 2020. Winter weather can create a life-or-death situation for people, making it vital to have sufficient shelter spaces for people to get warm and access basic services. Wild Wells Gray - Then and Now

This will be an exceptional Nicola Naturalist Society meeting with one of BC's best-known naturalists, Frank Ritcey. Frank's father Ralph Ritcey was a pioneer in wildlife research in the 1950s and 60s, including work with the original Jerry the Moose. Frank's presentation combines professional movies from that era with his own contemporary videos. Thursday Jan 18, 7pm in the NVIT Lecture Theatre. All welcome - membership or donation.

Dueling Pianos - Grad 2024 fundraiser

Dueling Pianos is a request-driven, interactive show with 2 singing pianists. The performers will get everyone involved, either up on stage or singing from their seats. The shows are engaging & hilarious, with a pool of over 4000 songs — Frank Sinatra to Bon Jovi to Eminem.

Tickets $45 each available from MSS Students, Miss Vicki's Petals & Plants and Purity Feed. The show is on Saturday, Feb 24, 8-11pm at the Civic centre.

2024 Thunderbird Rally

The Thunderbird is a winter driving adventure, round 1 of the 2024 BC TSD Rally Championship, and round 1 of the Pacific Coast Challenge. The rally starts and ends in Merritt. Events kick off the evening of Friday January 26 with registration Rally HQ at the Best Western Plus, and the first car out is at 10:30am on Saturday. Drivers will overnight in Salmon Arm and return to Merritt by about 3:30pm, with the dinner & awards presentation later that evening. The rally will be about 850km long, 40% on clear pavement, 60% on snow-covered pavement & gravel. FMI rallybc.ca/
